NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Miller and Farley pressing their bills.

Flaisted & Son, tanners, fail for $100,000.

The Democrats carry one of their own strongholds.

Page says the President will sign a ten year bill.

The Democrats are satisfied to let the veto matter rest.

O'Brien's estate amounts to seven million dollars.

Springer objects to the introduction of Page's new bill.

Arthur's effigy hanged in the same place with Guiteau's.

Two men in Amador quarrel about horses and one gets killed.

The new Cabinet nominations do not please everybody. Strange!

All the American prisoners in Ireland except three have been released.

Miss Sara Bernhardt is married. What will she do with her three children?

Universal indignation has been expressed all over the Pacific Coast at the veto.

The Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. elect officers. William H. Barnes re-elected G. M. W.

Archbishop Purcell's liabilities aggregate $4,000,000. Assets from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000.

Teller and Chandler have been nominated as per expectation, and William Hunt as Envoy to Russia.

Page is sure all the Republicans in the House who voted for the bill will vote to pass it over the veto.

The Mexican Government has accepted the railroad from El Paso to Chihuahua—whether as a gift is not stated.

In the Senate the attempt to pass the Chinese bill over the President's veto failed—29 to 21, not a two-thirds vote. Who voted and how.

A relief bill for $20,000 has been introduced for the officers and crew of the Monitor, who fought with the Merrimac in 1862. Rather long time coming.

Mrs. Jesse James swears out a warrant charging the Ford boys with murder. They are in jail at St. Joe. James' body has been sent to Kearney, Mo., for interment.

The Cheyennes and Arapahoes having been put on half beef rations, have eaten their ponies and stock cattle, and propose to begin on the Indian agents if they can't get more beef.

The Army Appropriation Bill has a compulsory retirement clause which will retire immediately forty-two army officers. One thousand two hundred officers petition for its passage.

A DEMOCRATIC TRINITY.

It was reserved to an esteemed Democratic contemporary to draw comfort from the assassination of Garfield, and speculate upon the beneficial effects his dastardly taking off might have upon the future of its party. We believe this is the first publication, and Los Angeles has the honor of being the place wherein conclusions gratifying have been drawn from a national calamity. That we may not be charged with misrepresenting a neighbor, we quote his glorification over the prospects of his party. He sees success in the coming campaign, and feels assured that ordinary circumstances would give Democracy a victory, but the country's misfortunes will render assurance doubly sure. Hear him:

"The celebrated 'off-year' in national politics would alone be enough to make California reliably Democratic this Fall. But the 'off-year' just now is reinforced by the assassination of Garfield, the Sunday Law and the Veto, a trinity which, while not of hell, is politically most significant."

But our friend is this, as often before, counts without his host. It has been said that "curses, like chickens, come home to roost," and as true as it was that the assassination of Lincoln fired the hearts of the people to keep out of the Presidential chair any of the infernal crew who were a party to his taking off, so will the men of to-day who mourn the loss the country and Republican party sustained in the death of Garfield, come to the rescue of Republican principles in 1884. And when that day shall come, few will care to remember that they publicly opposed a law of the land, nor see a propriety in claiming a party advantage from a public calamity. We commend to our contemporary devotion to his trinity, which, if not of the country he alludes to, must certainly be of contiguous territory.

THE Bee says: "The late George F. Baker was accounted very wealthy, but it is said that his will embraces property of the value of about $50,000, most of which was the result of fortunate speculations in mining stocks. His estate falls to his mother and sister."

HOW IT WAS RECEIVED.

A feeling of sorrow and indignation has uniformly characterized the reception of the news of the veto of the Chinese bill throughout the coast as indicated by the following:

OROVILLE.—The feeling is very bitter against President Arthur on account of the veto.

FRESNO.—The news of the President's veto is received with feelings of both disappointment and disgust. Chinatown has resounded with the explosion of firecrackers all the evening.

BAKERSFIELD.—A deep feeling of indignation pervades the entire community regarding the veto of the Chinese bill by President Arthur.

MERCED.—The news of the veto has created intense indignation here among all classes of citizens. Arthur and his advisers are denounced by men of both parties.

SALINAS.—The veto message, although partly expected, created an intense feeling of indignation here.

NAPA.—A feeling of general indignation prevails.

GRASS VALLEY.—The news was received with disgust and indignation by all citizens.

NEVADA.—Great indignation is felt at the veto of President Arthur. Tonight some Chinamen residing in the heart of the city built a bonfire in celebration of the veto.

SACRAMENTO.—The announcement was the signal for an expression of unanimous condemnation. People are indignant that the East will not learn what this coast suffers for want of favorable legislation on the Chinese question. The result is looked upon as a rusty nail in the President's political coffin.

SAN DIEGO.—The President's veto of the Chinese Bill caused a feeling of profound indignation, mingled with deep sorrow. The Chinamen are holding high carnival. Crackers and bombs attest their joy.

SILVER CREEK.—The feeling of indignation, irrespective of party, was universal. To-night, about half past eight, the brass band came through the principal street playing the Dead March in Saul, and at the same time an effigy of Arthur was swung between two of the principal buildings, amidst unearthly groans.

SANTA BARBARA.—When it was announced this morning that the President had vetoed the Chinese bill, the greatest interest and excitement was manifested.

SAN JOSE.—The news of the veto plunged our community into profound despondency. Men are asking what shall we do next to rid ourselves of the Chinese, and threats and curses are heard on every side.

SANTA CRUZ.—The United States flag was hung at half-mast, Union down, on the flagstaff on the plaza. This afternoon President Arthur was hung in effigy to the flagstaff, and to-night will be burned. A meeting condematory of the President's action will be held; a band will play funeral marches, and ten-minute speeches will be made.

WATSONVILLE.—Soon after the news of the veto of the Chinese bill arrived here, Arthur was hung in effigy, and left hanging across the street until this evening, when he was burned. He was hung at the same place where Guiteau was some months ago.

AUBURN.—Our citizens gave vent to varied expressions, according to the intensity of their feelings. One promenaded a coat of tar and feathers for Arthur; others desired to hang and burn him in effigy. The universal feeling of our whole people is one of deep disappointment and regret that the bill failed to become a law.

WELCOME, KEARNEY!

An esteemed Democratic contemporary welcomes to the ranks of the Democracy the forces lately under the command of the W-o-r-k-i-n-g man, Dennis Kearney, and has "no doubt that their claims to preferment will be thoroughly recognized." He even goes so far as to express a willingness to give Kearney's forces all the nominations "if their ambition reaches that far." Now this may be all right for the Democrats, but bless us, what a come down for Kearney and his coadjutors to forget all the acts and claims of virtuous patriots, and fall in line again behind the active banners of Democracy—a party that has abused and insulted laboring men ever since it echoed the slander of an advocate of the murderous institution of slavery, in denouncing the mechanics of the north as the "mudsills of society."

That the alliance we intimate is the policy of some of the wire pullers of the Democracy there are many reasons to make us believe. In our contemporary we quote, the opposition to the nomination of General Stoneman for Governor is noticeable and decided. And why is this? The flimsy pretext that he is wanted on the Railroad Commission another term is given. But that is too thin, and more than half an insult to the able gentleman. It would be almost as bad as a second crucifixion we read of where another friend of man suffered punishment between two men of far different reputation. The welcome to Kearney may explain the opposition to General Stoneman's nomination for Governor. The place may be wanted for Dennis. Who knows?

M. H. DEYOUNG and wife, who passed through this city the other day, were en route to Europe. They will stop a short time in New York and then cross the pond to remain a considerable length of time.

GOVERNOR TAFFLE has offered a reward of five hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of the murderers of M. R. Peel at Charleston, Arizona, on the evening of March 19th.

OSCAR WILDE'S reception was so generous by the esthetic people of San Jose that he will lecture there a second time. Thursday afternoon is fixed on the time.

THE origin of the school of the esthetics is mentioned in the Bible, where it is written, in effect, that Balaam smote his beast and made it to utter.

A MOVEMENT is on foot for building a narrow gauge railroad from Jacksonville to Stockton. The Mail strongly urges the matter.

The Express on the Veto.

EDS. TIMES:—The Constitution of the United States, Article I, Section 7, paragraph 2, says, "Every bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the President of the United States; if he approve, he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it, with his Objections, to the House in which it shall have originated," etc. The leading editorial of the Express of the 5th inst., headed "Arthur's Flimsy Reasons," concludes with this sentence;

"One English King has been brought to the block for a less heinous violation of the rights of the people, and a Court of Impeachment would find in the act of Arthur tenable grounds for convicting him of a high crime and misdemeanor in the arbitrary and unconstitutional exercise of the presidential prerogative."

This sentence, displaying the usual Kearneyite ignorance of the constitution and disregard of law, deserves the severe reprobation of every loyal citizen. It is plain from the language of the constitution that a President may veto any bill whatever. "If he approve he shall sign, if not he shall return;" and a President can no more be impeached for vetoing a bill than a member of Congress can be indicted by a Los Angeles Grand Jury for voting for it. Where the people elect both their law makers and their executives, the continuance of freedom without anarchy depends on the cultivation of the law-abiding spirit. If the Express editorial has any influence, it tends to the inciting of treason and the making of traitors, and should be condemned by every true American patriot.

REPUBLICAN.

A Protest from the Germans.

EDITOR OF THE TIMES: The League of Freedom has published its determination to resist the law of this State. The Southern California Post especially made itself prominent in the present movement regarding the Sunday law. It claims the German element is against the Sunday law. In this the editor is greatly mistaken. There is a large number of German citizens in favor of the enforcement of this law, of which more than nine-tenths of that number do not belong to any church. They are law-abiding citizens, and do not bring into contempt the Governor, Judges, and all the executive officers of our State. That paper, a week ago, abused our Chief of Police. It stated he was better fitted to work in his blacksmith shop, than fill that office, because he was faithfully performing his duty. It also stated that the Chief of Police was indebted to German influence for his last election, and that he would be left out in the cold next time. It also ridiculed our Supreme Judges for deciding the law to be constitutional. No wonder that a number of our German friends are opposers of a Sunday law, with such a leader and elevator of public morals.

A GERMAN CITIZEN.

Another Sad Home.

This evening was much pained yesterday to learn that the wife of our worthy fellow-citizen, Dr. L.W. French, was in a dying condition, and that was supplemented by a report at 5 p. m., which proved to be too true, that she was dead. The intelligence was startling, as few outside of the most intimate acquaintances of the family had any information of her illness. She was in the prime of life, and was taken from her interesting family of three children when they most need a mother's care. The warmest sympathy of the doctor's many friends will be drawn out to him for his great affliction.

CALIFORNIA politicians are all running into the lecture field. Governor Perkins has been lecturing for various charities, paying his own expenses and buying from ten to twenty tickets. John F. Swift, a prominent candidate for Governor, follows by lecturing at the State University. Irving M. Scott, also a Gubernatorial candidate, follows suit, and Hon. W. B. C. Brown, a Democratic candidate for the same office, not to be outdone by Republicans, enters the lists, lecturing at Sacramento last Tuesday evening on "The immortality of the soul demonstrated by reason of facts independent of Biblical proofs." The Bee says these side issues offend no one, and as the candidates can keep out of politics, and yet keep themselves before the people, their object is accomplished.

"PECK" has an excellent cartoon on the Rosecrans letter. It represents the tomb of Garfield, marked Fame, around which several hyenas, labeled with the names of newspapers which have assailed the dead President, are howling and trying to tear open the new-made grave. At one side a number of other hyenas, each bearing the "GSC" medal, have been trying to pull down the monument, but a thunderbolt from Heaven has snapped their rope in two, and the whole gang is falling into the gulf of oblivion.

THE cry has begun. Not content with telegraphic news that Santa Rosa had, at an insignificant local election, gone Democratic, it is again heralded this morning. The simple fact is that Santa Rosa is a Democratic stronghold and invariably goes that way at every election, and but for the state of the public mind, and to take advantage of every possible opportunity the matter of that little election would not have been noticed. It has not a whit more political significance than the old saw that "the Dutch have taken Holland."

THE San Diego Sun came out in mourning on receipt of the news of the President's veto, and exclaims—"We cannot shed our brothers' blood shed, but we can tolerate it if it should occur for proper cause."

At the O'Connor farewell in San Francisco Monday night, $1,080.75 was contributed for the Land League cause of Ireland.

FORD, the murderer of Jesse James, is a young man about twenty-two years of age and looks like a verdant youth from the country.

A MOVEMENT is on foot to erect a monument to Alexander Hamilton, at Weehawken, the spot where he fell in the duel with Aaron Burr.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Page is Working Like a Hero at the Chinese Bill.

Farley Introduces Six Sixteen Year Bills—The Cheyennes Starved the People, not Parties.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, April 6.—In the House Page asked the unanimous consent to introduce the Chinese bill. Springer objected and Page said he would ask for consent to introduce the bill until successful, if it took to the end of the session.

TARIFF COMMISSION BILL.

The House went into Committee on the Tariff Commission bill. Kasson hoped to get a vote early next week.

THE RED PAUPERS.

In the House the bill passed appropriating $50,000 for the immediate relief of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Indians.

FARLEY'S SIXTEEN YEAR BILL.

Farley introduced his sixteen year Chinese Bill.

OCEAN MAIL SERVICE.

Miller reported the original bill for ocean mail service between the United States and foreign ports.

THE NEW CABINET OFFICERS.

The nominations of Teller and Chandler were generally expected, and, therefore, created no surprise. Talker, no doubt, will be confirmed without reference to the Committee. But there will be some strong opposition to Chandler from the Democratic side. Several Democratic Senators have already openly declared that they will oppose Chandler, but it is thought the Republicans will all vote for him. Don Cameron voted against him when he was nominated for Solicitor General, but in view of Cameron's close relation with the administration it is generally believed he will now vote to confirm Chandler. It is the opinion of some leading Democrats that Davis, of Illinois, will also vote for Chandler; as that, if even all the Democrats should oppose him, he is likely to be confirmed.

TELLER CONFIRMED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—The Senate unanimously confirmed Senator Teller's nomination and referred the others.

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED.

Arthur Didn't Consider Parties When He Vetoed the Bill.

NEW YORK, April 6.—When the President was told yesterday that his veto would cost the Republican party their control of the Pacific States, he is reported to have said that he had not given party considerations a thought while examining the bill, and that if any party would reap any advantage from the executive approval or disapproval of a bill which involves American principles that have been in vogue for one hundred years, it would be the party in the long run which had stood on true American ground. The veto is understood to be the President's own composition, and when he had it to his Cabinet it was sustained by all but two members. David Davis is reported as being delighted with the veto. Arthur's friends say that the President will be the gainer. Some attempt will be made to rush a new bill through, but it is too late in the session and political considerations are such that it is regarded as highly improbable that another bill can be passed.

O'BRIEN'S ESTATE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—To-day an application for the distribution of the estate of Wm. S. O'Brien was heard by Judge Flint, in the Superior Court department for probate. Hall McAllister explained to the court that the application was for final distribution. He stated that the estate is now worth numbers to be distributed is about seven million dollars. In distributing this amount one cent set aside the sum of one million for possible credit-tors.

Afternoon Stocks.

Virginia, 68c; Curry, 2½; Mexican, 51; Ophir, 2½; Union, 9½; Nevada, 6½; Eureka, 21½; Alpha, 40c; Best, 4½; Overman, 25c; Point, 55c; Utah, 8½; Dahlo, 4½; Bullion, 30c; Savage, 75c; Bodie, 3½; King, 16½.

Indian Justice.

YUMA, A. T., April 6.—A party of Yuma Indians got into a drunken row below the Government farm, about a mile from town, on Tuesday evening, in which one of them killed another. The murderer was pursued and caught by the organized policemen of the tribe, summarily tried, found guilty, and to-day was beaten to death with a club, in the hands of the nearest relatives of the Indian he murdered. Such is savage justice, swift and sure.

Shot His Neighbor.

IOWA, April 6.—Thomas Nurse, a small farmer and stock man living three miles from here, was shot and instantly killed, last evening, by his neighbor, Wm. Kirkendall. The man is perhaps seventy years old. The cause that lead to the event grew out of a dispute about a piece of land on which Kirkendall had turned his horses. Nurse, considering it trespass, proceeded to turn the horses off, but was confronted by Kirkendall, who ordered him to desist, but Nurse not doing so was shot from his door. Kirkendall claims that he acted in self defense, but those best informed consider his claim groundless. Both parties were highly respected. Kirkendall made no attempt to escape.

IT is place of being sold out the Los Angeles Times has been enlarged. It looks successful.—San Diego News, April 4th.

The Los Angeles TIMES comes to us considerably enlarged. The paper has been a mere from the start. Good common sense has governed its management.—San Diego Union, April 5.

THE Los Angeles TIMES, which has recently been enlarged four pages, has found it necessary to enlarge in order to accommodate its increasing advertising patronage. The TIMES belongs to a class of journals which is happily growing larger in California—vigorous, independent and clean journalism demanded by the character and development of our population.—San Jose Times, April 5.

OUR delegates in Congress have most manfully done their whole duty on the Chinese question, and their Republican constituents will stand by them in sentiment and at the ballot-box. Any man who says Republicans will desert their banners while they have such royal leaders—why, the fact is, if there is anything in him he is careful to keep it to himself.

THE CALIFORNIA SOUTHERN.

Two weeks ago a peculiar appreciation took place at Boston in California Southern stock. Blocks of No. 2, which sold at 20@25 premium suddenly leaped by twenty-five bounds to 150. The reason for this at the time seemed unfathomable. The Boston Advertiser seems to hit the nail squarely on the head, driving it home, and clinching it on the other side, when it says: "It is understood that the Southern Pacific people now stand ready to give par or full value for all the securities of the California Southern, both bonds and stock." This accounts for the boom.
