Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/27598668

San Francisco Chronicle (San Francisco, California) · Tue, Apr 24, 1888 · Page 8

Downloaded on Dec 20, 2020

OUR LOCAL POLITICS.

The Clubs and Primary Elections.

DANGER TO THE DEMOCRACY.

Candidates for Delegates to the Republican National Convention.

Politics are becoming the favorite topic, and wherever a couple of citizens of patriotic proclivities meet the conversation turns to the possibilities of the primaries or the great election in November.

The Republican primary election in this city will be held on Thursday next, and is expected to be a quiet affair, as primary elections of delegates to a State convention which nominates no State officers usually are. The party as a whole generally lets such affairs go by default, and only realizes that diligence in politics is as essential as in other affairs when the work of the delegates chosen excites popular dissatisfaction.

Talking of this peculiarity of worthy citizens in general and those of the Republican party in particular, a well-known and respected merchant, who votes intelligently at primary and other elections, said to a CHRONICLE reporter yesterday:

"A good deal is said in condemnation of

HEGIRA TO THE EAST.

Coulter, Carlisle and the Brunette Depart.

SUNDAY STREET SCENES.

Escapades of an Actor, a Mining Man and a Gay Married Woman

Society circles in which George T. Coulter formerly moved as one of its choicest acquisitions were considerably perturbed at the disclosures made by the CHRONICLE on Sunday morning. The fact that he had deserted the woman and children who bear his name was not generally known, while the announcement that his act was the direct result of his infatuation for a well-known woman who resided at the Baldwin Hotel, proved a great surprise to his numerous friends. Although his conduct is blamable there are many who view it with sincere pity, deeming him an insane man, whose mind has been unhinged by too convivial habits.

THE SUPERVISORS.

HAPPY CHILDREN.

Kindergarten Scholars at Sutro Heights.

A DAY OF GREAT ENJOYMENT.

Froebel's Anniversary Pleasantly Celebrated — What the Little Ones Did.

The anniversary of Froebel's birthday was celebrated yesterday by the children of the Pioneer Kindergarten Society in a very pleasant manner. Two hundred and twenty of the little ones were taken to Sutro heights by the ladies who so generously labor in the interest of babyhood. The proprietor of the charming grounds kindly invited the schools to the heights, and did everything in his power to make the visit of the little ones and their escort happy and profitable.

BLOOD-HORSE RACES.

Spirited Betting on the Second Day's Events.

AN ACTOR'S WIFE.

WILLIAM H. THOMPSON NO LONGER MARRIED.

She Says That He Taught Her to Smoke Opium — A Sacramento Girl's Romance.

William H. Thompson is an actor, and is now unmarried. Yesterday morning, however, he was a husband. His wife has relieved him of longer bearing the burden of a benedict, for she yesterday obtained a decree of divorce from Judge Wilson.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

Copyright © 2020 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.
POWERED BY Newspapers.com