

THE EXAMINER, SAN FRANCISCO: SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 24, 1891.

Grandma Ruiz, the good fairy godmother of this function, who has a super-stitious belief in the efficacy of the Fete Champetre, gave in his name...

THE STATER AND THE FLEET. - Aided by an "Examiner" crew, called by name, proved to be a sailing man, the vessel took home and landed to buy all the supplies that the young crew would need.

IN NEW YORK men pay ten-dollar bills for a champagne, while the Prince of Wales has been known to give $20 for a small bottle.
