From the Superintendent of the House of Correction, with notice of the appointment by him, on the 5th inst., of John E. Davis as guard at that institution, vice P. Foley, resigned, and asking confirmation of the same.

From A. Bannister, asking that the Superintendent of Streets be empowered to lay down block pasement under the Box Plan, about fifty feet of pavement, in order to test its durability and permanent character.

From Joseph P. Kelly, special counsel for the collection of delinquent taxes for 1883-4, with report showing that he collected during the month of April, 1885, the sum of $3,454.74, and, after deducting his commission that he paid the Tax Collector, $3,282.

From the Superintendent of Streets, requesting authority to contract, under Section 13 of the Act of 1885, for the paving, curbing, etc., of Oak Grove avenue, between Fifth and Sixth streets, on behalf of property-owners, who have neglected to contract for the same; also, recommending that an extension of thirty days time be granted to H. De Greeyer for the completion of the redwood sewer in Seventh street, between Channel and King streets.

From the Superintendent of the Fire Alarm and Police Telegraph, showing that the expenses of that Department during the month of April, 1885, amounted to $1,586 87.

From the Chief of Police, showing that the expenses of the Police Department during the month of April, 1885, amounted to $44,152 ±0.

From the Recorder, showing that the receipts of his office from January 1st to May 1st amounted to $13,731 50, and the disbursements to $10,817 97.

From the City and County Attorney, giving his opinion in regard to the question as to whether Ash avenue is or is not a public street. In his report Mr. Love says that he has found nothing to show such dedication as would justify the city and county in taking possession of and opening the avenue to the public.

TWO VETOES FROM THE MAYOR.

TWO VETOES FROM THE MAYOR. The following communication from Mayor Bartlett was then read and allowed to take the usual course:

A second message from the Mayor is as follows:

GENTLEMEN: I herewith return without my approval resolution No. 18,090 (new series), declaring the intention of the Board to order certain street work therein described.

The resolution proposes to order a large amount of streets work to be done, and directs the Superintendent of Streets and Highways to proceed in accordance with the provisions of the Act known as the smended Vrooman Act, and also with sections of the Consolidation Act, or City Charter, relating to street improvements. In my opinion, the amended Vrooman Act and also with sections of the Consolidation Act, or City Charter, relating to street improvements. In my opinion, the amended Vrooman Act does not apply to this city and county, and therefore it is unnecessary to follow its directions. Each Act of the Legislature provides a complete system of mode for doing work upon streets, sewers, etc., and both systems, so different in material points, can not be in force within this city and county. Either the Vrooman Act repeals the provisions of the Consolidation Act upon the same subject, or the Vrooman Act itself is unconstitutional and void, so far as it undertakes to legislate for San Prancisco. "The Constitution," says Mr. Justice Ross, in delivering the opinion of the Supreme Court in Straude vs. Election Commissioners of the City and County of San Francisco, "Has provided in effect that the city and county of San Francisco shall not be compelled to surrender its present charter for one it does not want; and further that its charter for not it does not want; and further that its charter for not it does not want; and further that its charter for not it does not want; and further that its charter for not it does not want; and further that its charter for not it does not want; and further that its charter for not it does not want; and further that its charter for not it does not want; and further that its charter for not it does not want; and further that its charter for not it does not want; and furt tract, under the provisions of Section 13, of the Street Act of 1885, for the paving, curbing, etc. of Oak Grove avenue, between Fifth and Sixth streets; also recommending that an extension of 30 days time be granted to H. De Greayer for the completion of a redwood sewer in Seventh street, from King to Channel street; fourth, requesting authority to contract for the replanking of South Park lane between Third street and Center place; fifth, recommending that the construction of certain sewers in the Western Addition be medified so as to provide for the laying of a 16-inch ironstone pipe sewer in Buchanan street, between Rose and Lilly avenues, and in the crossing of Buchanan and Page streets.

Also report in favor of communication from A. Bannister, desiring that the Superintendent of Streets be empowered to lay down about fifty feet of block pavement, under the Box plan, in order that the durability of said pavement may be tested.

Of petition of property owners, for the paving of the crossing of Fillmore and Francisco streets.

Of petition of property owners, for the paving of the crossing of Fillmore and Francisco streets.

Of petition of property owners, for the Board, granting a railroad franchise along Jackson street and First avenue to Golden Gate Park.

Of petition of Property-owners, for the opening of Tenth street to Channel street, at the northerly end of Jersey street, on condition that Charles Crocker (Trustee) conveys to the city a portion of block No. 68, at the corner of Channel street and Portero avenue, for that purpose.

Of protest of citizens against the construction of a gravity railway at the ocean beach, near the Great Highway, unless the parties proposing to construct the same erect a board fence at least sixteen feet high, on the west side thereof, to prevent animals being frightened and the occurrence of accidents.

Your Committee also recommended that the contract for sprinkling the accepted blocks and crossings on Van Ness avenue be awarded to C. A. Warren, at the monthly rate of $10 ren, at the monthly rate of $10 per block and $5 per crossing.

Further report, adversely, to petition of Thomas McVarry for permission to withdraw two checks for the aggregate amount of $900, deposited by him with his proposals to construct a sewer in Buchanan street, from Union to Lombard street, and for paving Fillmore street from Lombard to Chestant street, as both of these street improvements had been stopped by injunctions of the Courts, and the substitution of a bond for the fulfillment of contracts for said improvements, should they be awarded to him. An opinion in relation to this matter, obtained from the City and County Attorney, points to the fact that there is no provision in the Street Act of 1883—under which the deposit of said checks was made—to authorize their return on the substitution of a bond.

Also, report adversely to protest of D. C. M. Godsel against the letting of any contract for the grading of Kentucky street from Nevada street to Railroad avenue, and Railroad avenue from Kentucky to Algeria street.

The following petitions, etc., are recommended to be placed on file:

Petition of A. E. Buckman for permission to use powder for blasting purposes within the city and county.

County.

Protest of property-owners against the maintenance of the nuisance created by the discharge of sewage from the Vallejo-street sewer, action on both petitions having already been taken.

Report of the Superintendent of Streets of the number of miles of street swept during the month of April, 1885; also, an opinion of the City and County Attorney in relation to the question as to whether Ash avenue is or is not an open public street. HEALTH AND POLICE COMMITTEE.

The following report was presented by the Health and Police Committee:

Health and Police Committee:

Gentlemen: Your Committee on Health, Police and House of Correction, to whom various petitions were referred, after hearing the parties interested, have considered the same and would respectfully report as follows:

In favor of the petition for the extension of the Pound limits by embracing in said limits all that portion of the city bounded by Lyon street, the southerly line of the Government Reserve, Sixteenth avenue, D, Fulton, Devisadero, Ridley, Castro, Seventeenth, Douglas, Twentieth, Ohurch, Twenty-sixth, Harrison and Twenty-first streets, Potrero avenue and Twentieth street and the waters of the bay. Various gentlemen, amongst whom was W. J. Green, the real estate agent, were heard by the Committee, and alleged that great damage was done to their property, and the safety of women and children were imperiled by the herding and grazing of cattle upon the public lands and highways in their vicinity, and that, owing to the construction of the Pound Order, no relief can be afforded by the Poundkeeper.

As there is no question in the minds of your Com-Pound Order, no relief can be afforded by the Poundkeeper.

As there is no question in the minds of your Committee as to the necessity of preventing the indiscriminate herding of cattle upon public highways and unoccupied, unfenced lots, the order is further recommended to be amended by providing for the impounding of all animals left standing upon any public street, square or ground, and all animals grazing upon any public street, square or ground, or upon any unoccupied and unfenced lot with or without a keeper.

An amendatory order in conformity with the foregoing report will, at the proper time, be presented for your action.

The petition of citizens for the enforcement of Order No. 1,600 is therefore reported back and recommended to be placed on file. Your Committee (Supervisors Gates and Kunkler dissenting) further report:

health from this as a pestilential source in case of cholera, or other like visitation, and the difficulties to be encountered in dealing with the problem thus set before us.

Your committee disclaim any sympathy with any movement that looks to setting on foot a popular hue and cry against the Chinese, with the view of resorting to physical force in any form to drive them from among us, because they do not recognize this method as in any sense a practical solution of the question as to how it is best to deal with a fully recognized public evil. They consider that Chinatown, in itself, and the presence of a dense population of people of Mongolian origin in that locality, with all their peculiarities of mode of life, their surroundings and occupations, are subjects which ought now to be considered and dealt with calmly and dispassionately and with the view, if possible, of arriving at some conclusion whereby the dangers with which the community is menaced may at least be reduced to the minimum, if they cannot be removed altogether. The data which your committee are now gathering, it is hoped, will at least open the way to a more intelligent discussion and more intelligent action than has been had before, and will go far, it is also hoped, to correct public sentiment in the East upon this all-important question, and thereby tend to establish a public policy which shall control and guard against a further invasion by a race whose presence can never be otherwise than permicious and dangerous to the public health and public welfare.

Such are the general ideas of your committee as to the scope of their action, and by which they are being governed. It remains at this present moment only, that out of the twelve blocks embraced between Broadway and California, Kearny and Stockton streets, seven have been surveyed, and diagrams made, showing in detail their occupancy, and notes taken which will enable your Committee to submit their complete report.

Tolman, for the cancellation of erroneous assessments on the Personal Property Rolls of 1876-7, 1877-8 and 1879-80, as it appears that the petitioner was not a resident of the city and county during the years named, nor did he own any personal property whatever in this city and county.

Of petition of Catherine Matheson, for the return of the sum of $14.85, paid by her in mistake as taxes on the real estate of Egbert Judson for the year 1884, said taxes having already been paid by Judson himself.

EXPENSES OF THE CHINATOWN COMMITTEE.
Still under the above head, Supervisor Gates made a motion that no further appropriations be granted for the expenses of the special committee appointed to investigate Chinatown, as the report presented early in the evening did not give a satisfactory explanation of the work they had accomplished, and what they had to show for the money they had expended.

Mr. Farwell, Chairman of the Committee, immediately responded by saving that he was just

Mr. Farwell, Chairman of the Committee, immediately responded by saying that he was just beginning to gain an insight into the true inwardness of the animus and spirit of opposition with which the Committee had been constantly contending ever since their appointment by the Board. It was very plain, said Mr. Farwell, that Mr. Gates was representing the interests of the Board of Health, and that his endeavors to defer further action of the Committee were due to a fear that the investigation of the committee would disclose something to the detriment of the Board of Health. Mr. Farwell was of the opinion that the work acsomething to the detriment of the Board of Health.
Mr. Farwell was of the opinion that the work accomplished by the committee during the past few months had done more to improve the sanitary condition of Chinatown than had any action of the Board of Health during the past ten years. Quite a passage at arms ensued between the Supervisors after this, but the Mayor called them both to order and put the resolution to a vote, which resulted in its rejection by a ballot of six noes, two ayes and three excused votes.

As the meeting was about to close, School Director J. P. H. Wentworth extended the Board an oral invitation to attend the graduating exercises of the commercial class of the Boys' High School, on Thursday, the 14th instant. The invitation was on Thursday, the 14th instant. The invitation was accepted with thanks.

The meeting then adjourned.

The petition of citizens, calling upon the Board to take some action to prevent prize fights and slogging matches was not read.

AMUSEMENTS.

BALDWIN THEATRE.—If an audience that packed largely of the very cream of fashionable society, is an augury for the success of a new play, the managers of the Madison Square Company and the Baldwin Theatre can feel well assured that a successful season is in store for them during the continuance of the presentation of "May Blossom." Few recent productions have been so well advertised, both in the usual manner and also by a disputed claim of authorship between David Belasco and Howard P. Taylor. Eastern journals have been earnestly advocating one or the other, and the matter yet remains unadjusted while of and the matter yet remains unadjusted, while at the same time the play continued to run success-fully through a six months' season at the Madison Square Theatre in New York. It cannot be said that there is much of any plot, the chief interest being in the introduction of pleasant incidents of goodly people in humble life and childhood's happy pleasures. The piece is produced with of goodly people in humble life and childhood's happy pleasures. The piece is produced with much attention to picturesque scenic effects, which are cleverly produced. The first scene in the fisherman's home and the forest scene in the fourth act being exceedingly creditable. The reappearance of Miss Georgie Cayvan was marked by much enthusiasm, and Benjamin Maginley and W. H. Compton were also heartily received. In the role of May Blossom Miss Cayvan has a sympathetic and interesting part on the Hazel Kirke order, but lacking the more emotional features of that character. That she made the most of the character was evidenced by frequent and repeated recalls, and the floral testimonials showered on the bright and talented lady were simply overpowering. As Tom Blossom, Mr. Maginley was hearty, whole-souled and jovial, and was warmly received. The most original character, and one that seemed whole-souled and jovial, and was warmly received. The most original character, and one that seemed to please the audience best, was that of Uncle Bartlett, the village preacher, personated by W. H. Compton, whose quaint manner and bashful courting of the maiden aunt, Deborah, created the hit of the evening. The introduction of a number of scenes in which the comedy element is predominant, have probably saved the piece from otherwise failure. The children scene in the fourth act was exceedingly well gotten up, and the little ones acted with a precocity quite unusual, and while merely incidental to the play caused much sympathy and applause, particularly from the ladies of the audience.

BUSH-STREET THEATRE .- " Peck's Bad Boy," a collection of amusing scenes which have appeared in sketches that have made Peck's Sun prominent in sketches that have made Peck's Sun prominent among the humorous papers of the past, was presented last night for the first time in this city by Atkinson's Comedy Company. It is without a gleam of reason throughout, but laughter bubbles over at every incident, and these come quick and fast in such a way as to be cleverly presented, and withal equal to similar predecessors, like "The Bunch of Keys" and others. It reserves its best features for the closing, as the first act in its furious attempt at provoking laughter grows somewhat monotonous. The third act introduces the company in a number of excellent specialties, and enables W. A. Macpherson to retrieve himself with a bass solo, for as a comedian he was not in his element, being stiff and his lines uttered in a manner that were not intelligible. There are many pleasing voices in the company, and, in fact, in the musical ensemble rests the chief merit of the company. Henry Peck, the hero of the absurdity, is very admirably interpreted by John J. Williams, though the honors of the evening fell to J. W. Grath, both in performance and acceptance, applause and encores being liberally given him in every scene. Miss Boshell is a very artistic dancer, and the blending of other features by the remainder of the company, though rapidly and too mechanically done at times, made a fulfillment of the promise to furnish a novelty with a thousand laughs in a thousand seconds. The attendance was very large. among the humorous papers of the past, was pre acter and Irish wit, was presented at the Californialast evening. "Conn, the Shaugraun," by Dion Boucicault, is an old and special favorite nialast evening. Conn, the Shangraun," by Dion Boucicault, is an old and special favorite with San Franciscans and was welcomed with that cordial and hearty applause which must warm the heart of the veteran author and actor. The years which have elapsed since he last appeared before a San Francisco audience do not appear to have materially affected the vigorous, rollicking, mirthloving Irishman typined in Conn. He was well seconded by Dion Boucicault, Jr., as Harvey Duff, which, by the way, is an exceedingly trying character, as are all this trying type of Irish villians. The young man shows signs of thorough dramatic training and is likely to prove in time a "chip of the old block." Miss Nina, as Moya, was also satisfactory. The Boucicaults were recalled several times during the evening, and the honors were shared with several other members of the troupe. J. B. Satton as Father Dolan, and Walton as Captain Molineau were notably satisfactory. The scenic and mechanical effects were magnificent.

STANDARD THEATRE. - Gunter's "Strictly Business' is popular enough already to need only a passing notice. The house was again filled to extra seating capacity last night, and the piece has the best drawing prospects for the remainder of its run.

The sale of seats yesterday for the Amateur Opera was beyond expectations. The line continued regular from 12 m. up till 6 p.m. Parquette, dress circle and family circle seats are yet to be had at the regular advertised prices.

Yale College, which furnished from its Faculty the President of the Board of Revisers of the Bible, Rev. Dr. George E. Day, the eminent Hebrew scholar, is much interested in the appearance of the revised version of the Old Testament, promised to Americans on the 19th inst. Prof. Day is enthusiastic over the volume, and believes it will take the place of the King James' version. He said the new Bible was the outcome of researches of the highest knowledge in restoring the Scriptures to their textual purity, and to the unlearned even more than to the learned will the new version be profitable; the meaning of the Word would be made clearer and skepticism be disarmed at many points. The changes made are not fundamental. They touch nothing which is essential to Christianity.

A Bridgeport, Conn., dispatch contains the death-bed confession of Baldwin Janser, a Danish sallor, who died at Honolulu in January. This confession explains the murder of Captain Colvocoreses of the United States Navy, who was killed in 1872 in Bridgeport. His satchel, containing valuable bonds, was missing and a seal ring from his finger was gone. He had over $25,000 insurance on his life and the theory was advanced by interested insurance companies that he had committed suicide. The confession of Janser was corroborated Friday by the receipt of the stolen ring. the stolen ring.
