Anderson, Chinatown Police Head, Dies on Hunting Trip

Police Lt. Harold E. Anderson had been in charge of the Chinatown area, and died late yesterday afternoon after suffering a heart attack while on a hunting trip.

Anderson, who would have been 47, died on September 11, had spent the Labor Day week end shooting deer.

He collapsed while in the field, about 10 miles from Los Angeles. He died as his hunting companions rushed him to the Los Angeles City Clinic.

Lieutenant Anderson was appointed head of the Chinatown beat in January 1951, in succession to Police Chief Michael Gaffney. He was on assignment.
