A Prisoner Escapes From the Bailiff in Judge Frick's Court.

THOMAS BROWN AT LIBERTY.

Officers of the Pacific Athletic Association Elected—Line to Livermore.

Thomas Brown, a young man who has been in the Alameda County Jail awaiting trial on a charge of attempted burglary for a month past, escaped from the dock in Judge Frick's court yesterday morning, and up to a late hour last night was still at liberty.

Bailiff Smith went to the jail before court convened and brought Brown and two other prisoners over to be arraigned. When they were placed in the dock and the handcuffs removed, it was discovered that one of the men had been mistaken for a prisoner still in the jail, and Bailiff Smith went over to the District Attorney to see which one was wanted, and get an order on the jailer for him.

Brown, who is a small man, slipped from the dock the instant Smith's back was turned, and made for the door leading into the corridor. The deputy saw him just as the door was closing on his retreating form, and made a dart for the exit. The corridor was crowded with witnesses and spectators in the Lambert case, and Brown managed to dodge among them and was lost to view.

From that moment he seemed to sink into the earth. Bailiff Smith searched the building thoroughly, but could find no trace of the escape, and then the customary precaution of warning the constables and their deputies about the county was taken.

A large number of people saw Brown dodge out of the courtroom and down the stairs without having any idea that a prisoner was escaping. Brown was that he saw the state of affairs, but made no attempt to check the fugitive in his flight. Among the later was F. N. Langley, a jurymen in the Lambert case, who saw Brown go out of the door and he knew he was a prisoner from seeing him enter the courtroom handcuffed a few minutes before. His excuses in not stopping Brown was that he did not think it any business of his to interfere with the Sheriff's duties.

Brown was 17 years of age and was arrested by Policeman Quigley while acting as a suspicious man near the residence of C. D. Havens at Eighth and Washington streets. He hails from Los Angeles, and is said to have been in trouble with the police of that city.

Sessions Basin Bonded.

The water front on Sessions Basin was bonded yesterday to the California Railroad. The agreement filed with the Recorder states that Horace W. Carpenter has leased to E. C. Sessions what is known as Sessions Basin for an annual rental of $5. The property is bonded for $2,202 10. Of this $2,202 10 is to be paid on the delivery of the agreement; $13,929 68 on January 1, 1896; and the remaining $50,000 before January 1, 1897.

Upon the payment of the entire amount Carpenter is to deliver the basin and land to the property. Another document was filed assigning the same property by Mr. Sessions to the California Improvement Company, which is composed of the representatives of the California Railroad Company.

Athletic Associations.

At a meeting of the Pacific Athletic Association of the American Athletic Union held last evening in the Reliance Club building the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, W. F. Humphrey, South End Rowing Club; vice-president, J. F. Shanley, Acme Club; secretary, J. L. Jannusis, St. Mary's College; treasurer, W. A. Jones, San Francisco Y. M. C. A.; official handicapper, Fred Koch, University of California; and the Stockton Athletic Club.

The organizations represented by delegates were: Acme Club, Olympic Club, Reliance Club, South End Rowing Club, San Francisco Athletic Club, St. Mary's College Athletic Club of San Francisco, Stanford University, Oakland Y. M. C. A., San Francisco Y. M. C. A., University of California, Fresno Athletic Club and the Stockton Athletic Club.

President Humphrey, in his address of acceptance, outlined a policy which he has already pursued during the ensuing year, and intimated that he would advocate a closer application of the rules governing amateur contests.

Terrified His Wife.

W. H. Donaldson, a blacksmith, attempted to kill his wife yesterday while intoxicated. He borrowed a revolver from a saloon-keeper and proceeded to his home, where he found his wife hidden in the cellar. She begged of him not to shoot, but he paid no attention whatever to her pleadings. He pulled the trigger, but the hammer only snapped.

The saloon-keeper, knowing of his intentions, loaded the pistol with blank cartridges. Donaldson, upon learning of the trick that had been played upon him, hurried back to the saloon and got a carrying knife from the free lunch counter. On his way to his home, armed with the big knife, he was arrested by Officer Curtis and taken to the City Prison.

Another Road to Livermore.

The Supervisors were asked yesterday to grant a franchise for another railroad from Oakland to Livermore via Hayward. This line is expected to be a rival of the road projected to the Corral Hollow coal mines.

The petition was favorably reported and an ordinance granting it passed to print. Bids for the franchise will be opened on July 23.

Judgment Against Sessions.

Mrs. M. F. Benton has obtained judgment against E. C. Sessions for $13,232 46. Six years ago Mrs. Benton loaned Sessions that amount upon the security of 600 shares of stock in the Highland Park and Fruitvale street railroad. Since that time the railroad has been turned over to a receiver and the stock is said to be practically valueless.

Lambert's Trial Resumed.

The trial of Walter Lambert, the defaulting police clerk, was resumed in Judge Frick's court yesterday. Attorney Brently argued that Lambert did not take public money, but his points were not considered by the court. The trial will be continued today.

Imprisoned Forty-Two Times.

Mollie Traynor, a notorious petty criminal of this city, was released from the City Prison to-day for the forty-second time since 1880. She was charged with vagrancy, but as no complaint had been filed she was discharged.

ALAMEDA.

A force of men under the supervision of A. La Plant broke ground yesterday morning in the center of the city park and began excavating for the concrete base which will hold the proposed liberty pole in place. The pole will be in two sections, the lower 100 feet and the top section fifty. The first section will be inserted on Thursday and will be imbedded in concrete.

Right Shoulder Broken.

Mrs. Henry Gressens, wife of the florist, was more severely injured by being thrown from her buggy at Fruitvale Friday last than was at first reported. Her right shoulder was broken. She has been removed to her home on Chestnut avenue, and is under the care of a physician.

The Board of Examiners.

Captain W. F. Chipman and First Lieutenant Simpson of Company G passed before the board of examiners of the Second Brigade, N. G. C., last evening. They were recently elected to succeed themselves, and it was necessary before receiving their commissions to secure a certificate from the board.

Blue-Rock Tournament.

The Empire Gun Club will hold a blue-rock tournament on their grounds at Alameda Point on the Fourth. The events will be open to all and the affair promises to be an important one in shooting circles.

Battered a Chinaman.

Jean Band, the youth convicted on a charge of battery committed on Laundryman Koo, was yesterday sentenced to twenty days in the County Jail, with an alternate of paying a $40 fine. He will go to jail.

Eickhoff Reappointed.

J. H. Eickhoff, recently elected principal of the West of San Francisco Normal School, was yesterday reappointed by the County Board of Supervisors a member of the County Board of Education.

BERKELEY.

Professors Joseph Le Conte, William Carey Jones and Irving Stringham will leave in a few days to attend the National Educational Convention at Denver, which will be held there during the early part of next month.

Immediately following the Educational Convention will be the Convention of United States Agricultural Experiment Stations, at which a member of the agricultural department of the university will be in attendance.

It is probable that Professor Loughridge will be selected to go on account of their being illness in the family of Professor Hilgard at the present time.

Professor George B. Howison, Mills professor of intellectual and moral philosophy at the university, who recently received a call to the chair of philosophy at the University of Michigan, has decided to retain his present position at the university.

Will Not Come Through.

A letter received yesterday from Captain Koch of the university athletic team stated that he would arrive at Berkeley with all his men excepting Dozier and Barnes, who will stop off at Sacramento. Brayley is already on his way home and will be here in a day or two. Captain Koch wished that whatever was done for his men in the way of a reception be carried out on the evening of their arrival, as they are all anxious to get to their homes as soon as possible.

University Tourists.

A delegation of the University of California-Stanford tourists, who left on the 3d inst. for a trip through Oregon and Washington, returned yesterday morning.

A. A. Smith of the Glee Club, said: "From beginning to end our trip was one of pure pleasure. Large houses turned out to every concert we gave, and the people generally treated us royally, and if the athletic teams had not been here yesterday were as well received as we they will have no reason to complain."

Wedding Bells.

The wedding of Miss Emma Holden and N. T. Kerns took place on Sunday at the residence of the bride's parents on Hartwood avenue. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Clark K. Brown of the North Berkeley Congregational Church.

The home of the bride and groom will be in Berkeley.

No Saloon Men Arrested.

None of the saloon men who have refused to pay the additional $100 on their liquor licenses required of them by the Board of Town Trustees, were arrested yesterday as was expected, on account of a delay in the issuance of proper warrants.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

George Lang, the Champagne Agent, Comes to Trial This Morning.

The case of George Lang, arrested for selling goods under false pretenses, is set for trial to-day. It is not known just how long the traffic has been carried on, as he is reported to have gone about it very secretly. It is charged that Lang made a practice of labeling California champagne costing $6 per case with the labels of Pomery Sec, the well brand of champagne, and selling it for $16 per case, while the price of the genuine Pomery is $36 per case.

The fraud was first detected by a customer at Frank Gobe's saloon on Sutter street. The patron thought he had been served a bottle of champagne from the appearance of the bottle, but when he tasted the contents he knew something was wrong. He made known his suspicions to Mr. Gobe, who at once informed William Wolf & Co., the local agents of Pomery Sec, hence the arrest.

J. J. Dwyer has been retained to prosecute the case, which will come up this morning in Judge Joachimsen's court.

SOCIALISTS INDORSE IT.

Give Their Countenance to a Parade of Unemployed.

The San Francisco section of the Socialist Labor party met last night and indorsed the idea of a parade of the unemployed in the wake of the Fourth of July procession.

There has been started a French branch of this section, making four branches in the city, the other three being the Jewish, Liberty and German. Secretary Beresford states that the party will at once proceed to organize district clubs to comply with the new primary law.

The committee was chosen to get up an English socialist parade. It is composed of Messrs. Lutge, Marten, Garrett, Copeland and Schultz.

On Sunday W. S. Bell will address a meeting at the Temple, 115 Turk street. The French branch will meet at Apollo Hall, on Pacific street, and be addressed by Pastor Dupuy of the French Reformed Church.

Editor Emile Lies of the Tageblatt and Marcus S. Levy of the Arbeiter Zeitung, met at a meeting at the Temple, 115 Turk street, on July 7, under the auspices of the Jewish branch. Mr. Levy will speak in Hebrew and his subject will be "Machinery."

The Royal Baking Powder is the greatest of the modern-time helps to perfect cooking, and every receipt requiring a raising ingredient should contain its use.

An Incendiary Fire.

A small fire was discovered in the lodging-house at 108 1/2 Geary street at 12:45 o'clock this morning. An alarm was given, but the fire was so small that it was extinguished in the place where the mysterious fire occurred Wednesday night, and it is supposed that both fires were incendiary.

FATHER SERDA'S JUBILEE.

An Oakland Priest Completes Twenty-Five Years in the Church.

HONORS HEAPED UPON HIM.

Priests From All Parts of the State Were Present at the Ceremonies.

The Church of the Sacred Heart in Temescal was the scene of impressive ceremonies yesterday when Rev. Father Lawrence Serda, the pastor, celebrated his silver jubilee in the presence of a large congregation and prominent Catholic clergymen from all parts of the State.

The sacred edifice was crowded with his parishioners and visitors from Oakland and San Francisco, and the offerings brought by the audience were numerous and costly.

The services virtually began at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, when the forty hours' devotional ceremonies began with the preaching of a sermon by Rev. Father Scanlon, the assistant pastor. The evening services, which began at 7:30, were so largely attended that many of the parishioners were compelled to stand outside. The rosary was recited, and solemn benediction given. Father Serda acted as celebrant, Father Lally of Dixon as deacon and Father Scanlon as sub-deacon. Later exercises were held in the assembly hall of the church, when Father Serda was presented with a gold chalice studded with diamonds and a purse containing $500.

The presentation speech was made by Henry Weber, one of the parishioners. He said: "First we offer you a chalice, that you may offer sacrifice to the Almighty with the humble prayer that you may remember us. We also offer you a small purse, that you may use it for the poor, dear father, we would beg of you to add to our own happiness by giving us your paternal blessing. May we be blessed by your being spared to us for many years to come, and may the Father, who sends you to us with a diadem which will shine forth as a brilliant star, which God has promised to those who teach others the way to salvation."

Yesterday the services were resumed by the chanting of solemn high mass, Father Serda acting as celebrant, assisted by Rev. Martin Scanlon, deacon, Rev. Father Haligan of San Francisco subdeacon, and Rev. J. B. McNally, master of ceremonies. Among those present were:
