A BRIDE'S BALLOON

The Woman Parachutist's Dread Ascent.

DASHED AGAINST A HOUSE.

A Balloon Catches Fire and Is Borne Blazing Over the Roofs-The Victim's Condition.

A thousand people witnessed a terrible scene at the Cliff House yesterday. A young woman, utterly powerless to assist herself, was borne aloft clinging to a burning balloon, and was dashed with cruel force against a neighboring building. Both her lower limbs were instantly broken, and other severe and possibly fatal injuries sustained. The fearful suddenness of the catastrophe, the spectacle of the hapless woman and the blazing machine, inextricably connected, and both at the mercy of a headlong gale combined to produce a thrilling spectacle that will leave an indelible impres-

An additional element of pathos was lent to the sad affair by the circumstances surrounding its victim. She had only been a bride a few weeks, and appears to have had a strange presentiment against making the

A balloon ascension had been advertised

She Was Dashed Against the Window to take place at 2:30 P. M., the aeronaut to be "King of the Clouds." This meant Frank Hagal. In his place his bride of six weeks, Lillie Hagal, appeared.

A fierce wind blowing landward rendered it necessary to raise a windbreak of canvas. This was lowered once, as the ropes holding it were found unable to bear the strain. In spite of the windbreak it required the services of twenty or thirly men and boys to hold the balloon as it filled with hot air from the furnace below

As it writhed and twisted in their grasp the aeronaut, clad in gaudy blue cotton tights, fastened herself to the parachute with which she was to descend. From time to time she would glance anxiously at the swelling balloon, but she said nothing.

As the balloon filled, a voice from behind the screen was heard to cry: "Let her go.

She'll catch fire."
"Hold her," shouted Hagal; "she's not full yet."

But the first call had done its work. A dozen men had loosed their hold. The pulley on the land side was held longer than that on the side toward the sea. The supportingpele on the east fell. The wind was blowing fiercely toward the land. Everything tended to keep the balloon from going directly upward.

As it rose from the ground Hagal leaped for the ropes, crying:
"For God's sake, man, hold it! For God's sake, don't leave go! A gust of wind pulled the rope from his grasp, and, as the balloon was held for the ment over the furnace, the flames caught the inflammable sides.

As it rose burning, the gaping crowd at first seemed amused at the woman's endeav-ors to free herself. Their amusement speed-ily changed to anxiety, then to horror, as they saw the balloon rise and be dashed oward the large building at the terminus of For an instant it seemed as if it would

The now unconscious woman was dragged over the building, striking the house again and breaking a window in the next story. By this time the flames had eaten a great hole in the side of the balloon. The hot air escaping, it descended so that the ropes holding Mrs. Hagal were caught in the eaves of an adjoining building.

She hung, suspended about twelve feet from the grayed for eaveral prients. from the ground for several minutes. A man then mounted the roof and severed the ropes binding her to the parachute, and the limp, lifeless body fell into the arms of her distracted husband beneath. She was carried to the kitchen of a neighboring restaurant. There it was found that she was yet alive, but as she was car-ried to the train, her lower limbs dangling helplessly revealed the fact that both were broken below the hips. This fracture must have been made when she struck the build-Mrs. Hagal is a slight, pretty young woman, about 25 years old. She is quiet and retiring and is well liked. A young lady in speaking of the matter said: "Next Friday will make six weeks that Lillie has been married. They had only been married a few days when Mr. Hagal asked her how she would like to go up in a baloon. She thought he was fooling and said she thought it would be fine.

"His response was, 'All right; you shall go up next Sunday."
"When she found he was in earnest she didn't like to eat her words, so she made the ascent. It was a failure though, because she was so scared she didn't have the strength to pull the rope that loosed the "The second and third ascensions were all right. This was the fourth. She didn't want to go up at all. She told Frank [her husband] that the wind was blowing too hard, and that it was too cold. But he said it was all right and for her to get said it was all right, and for her to get "It's a drawing card to have a woman make an ascension, and the railroad people paid him extra for that. But he was advertised to go up this time, and I don't see why "Just fifteen minutes before the balloon went up," said another young lady, whose eyes were red with crying, "Lillie ran down to her husband to ask him if she must go up. He said yes, so she came back Frank Hagal, when seen late in the even-

"It was not nearly full. Besides, the ropes were not loosed properly, though I had told the man how to do it a dozen "The balloon caught fire, but that would not have mattered if the balloon had only been buoyant enough to have risen high from that young the balloon caught fire, but that would position, but few men can rest easily so, and hence it is best to cultivate the habit of sleeping on the right side."

SOME WISE SAYINGS-

N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., Chicago,

St. Louis, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Montreal.

2024 ly FrMo

ing, said that the balloon was loosed too

the ground. I have often gone up with the balloon on fire and made successful leaps."

The injured woman was carried to the Receiving Hospital. Here it was found that both legs were broken midway between the hip and knee, and there was a long cut in the right leg. There were several bruises on the face. The nose was torn open, but the bone was not broken. She was treated by Dr. Kaufman, who says that with good treatment she may recover, as she shows remarkable vitality and the as she shows remarkable vitality, and the shock of the accident does not seem to have seriously affected her. There are a few bruises about the body and there may be some internal injuries not yet apparent. The eff cts of such a fearful shock to a delicate woman are especially feared.

Mrs. Hagal before her marriage was known as Lillie Dean, and was a waitress in one of the downtown restaurants.

When Mrs. Hagal struck against the sec ond house, the balloon, being held fast, was blown to the ground by the wind. There it was burned to ashes.

A woman, whose name could not be learned, in her eagerness to see the injured balloonist, stepped into the fire. In an instant her clothes were ablaze. She ran shrieking into a house, where some thoughtful person wrapped her in a tablecloth and extinguished the flames.

ANOTHER BALLOON BURNED. The Crowd at the Park See a Fire

Instead of an Ascension.

The big crowd that assembled on Stanley treated to a show not on the advertisements. sion upon the minds of its horrified wit-At the same time Woodford Brothers mourned the loss of their big balloon. To support the airship as it filled and to keep it erect four 30-foot poles had been stuck in the ground to a depth of two feet. This would have been perfectly satisfactory had there been no wind. As it was the poles were soon knocked over by the tossing Just as word was given to let the balloon go a gust of wind blew it over the hot air chimney. In a moment it was ablaze.

Young Woodford, who, with a dog, was to make the ascent and drop with a parachute, saw the danger. With great presence of mind he loosed himself from the cords.

The blazing balloon, free from its burden, rose about 100 feet. The flames gained rapid headway, and the hot air quickly escaped from the great hole they had made. This caused the balloon to fall. Fortunately it came down in the middle of the street. There was no loss except of the balloon. Burning fragments of cloth dropped on the coof of one house, but the flames were exiguished before any serious damage was ircles vesterday. Amateurs galore were to be seen at both ourts and some very good contests were witnessed by the large crowd of spectators, who took advantage of the weather to turn out in full force. As a result both courts were crowded.

TOSSING THE SPHERE.

Unusually Large Crowds Enjoy Good Sport at the Handball Courts. It was an unusually lively day in handball

Phil Ryan has reassumed the management of Ryan's court and will continue to direct its destinies. Shay, to whom the place was sold two weeks ago, refused to consummate the terms of the sale and Rvan's friends will be glad to hear that the court will be conducted as heretofore.

The benches at Ryan's were filled with a large crowd of enthusiastic spectators. As the court was thoroughly dry and in excellent condition the playing was above the average, as the scores will testify.

The day's sport was opened with a wellplayed double game between Brunnick and Cummins and Shea and Morris, each team winning one rub, and the game terminated with even honors. Score: First rub, 15-11, )-15, 15-14; second rub, 7-15, 15-13, Slattery and Mahoney next defeated Donohoe and Collins, after a fairly well contested point game. Score: 15-6, 11-15

Slattery and Mahoney were again victorious in a second double, when they defeated Donohoe and O'Connor in two straight bouts. Score: First rub, 15—10, 15—11; second rub, 15—9, 11—15, 15—4. The winning team is open to challenges from amateurs to play in double contests.

Vogelsang, the champion of the Potrero, stamped the crowned head of a man. The Then an involuntary "Oh!" came from the horror-stricken assemblage as the woman was dashed against the side of the building, smashing in the frame and glass of a window. The balloon passed just over the eaves.

The nan involuntary "Oh!" came from the champion of Australia, and Joe Lawless and James Kearney attracted a large crowd.

Betting on the event was lively with the kangaroo on the long end at 3 to 1. He scarcely merited the confidence of his admirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his admirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent, as he was not in his mirers to that extent and mirers to the exte usual form and had some difficulty in winning in four games, each with an unusually close score. After a close contest his superior powers of endurance finally captured

Jones denies that the statement was authentic, made by certain daily papers that he appeared at Ryan's court for the last time yesterday.

"While 1 may eventually go East and secure a match with Casey at New York, or some of the other champions," said Jones, "I know I am not now in condition, and will not play any championship match until I am. That will be at least several months from now. I will remain here for several months yet."

Jones further states that he expects to have some difficulty in getting a match on favorable terms to himself. Both he and his backer wish to arrange for an all-over-court contest, if possible.

At the Union court there was a fair crowd, when some good sport was witnessed by the spectators.

McInerney and Lynch defeated Coughlin and Kelly in a well-played double. Score: 15-10, 15-18. Leary and Mullany next defeated Howard and Lynch. Score: 15-13, 15-12.

P. Hutchinson and D'Arcy defeated G.

Hutchinson and Johnson. Score: 15-9, 15-13, 15-9. Condon and Johnson defeated G. Hulchinson and J. Kelly. Score: 15-4, 15-13.
G. Hutchinson and Feeney were next defeated by W. Kelly and P. Kelly. Score:

Best Position for Healthy Sleep. A doctor writing in a medical paper says: "An immense number of people sleep on the left side, and this is the most com-mon cause of the unpleasant taste in the mouth in the morning, which is generally attributed to dyspepsia. If a meal has been taken within two or three hours of going to bed, to sleep on the left side is to give the stomach a task which is difficult in the ex-treme to perform.

"The student of anatomy knows that all food enters and leaves the stomach on the right side, and hence sleeping on the left side soon after eating involves a sort of pumping operation which is anything but conducive to sound repose. The action of the heart is also interfered with considerably, and the lungs are unduly compressed. It is probable that lying on the back is the most natural

"G reat designs require great consideration.

Ittle and often fills the purse.

But the wisest of all is—USE illgence is the mistress of success.

One eye-witness is better than ten hear-says.

eserve success and you shall command it.

se not to-day what to-morrow may want.

Spare superfluities to provide necessaries.

ruth never fears a rigid examination."

WASHING POWDER

and thereby save Time, Strength and Money.

THOSE CUTLASSES.

The Arsenal Found in the Beach Sands.

IT'S ALL A MYSTERY YET.

Treasure-Hunter Nelson Knows That the Chest of Gold Is There and More Arms, Too.

No, they have not found out yet whether those strange old cutlasses, bayonets, muskets, etc., that Captain Nelson has found were or were not wielded once by bad and bold buccaneers who roved the main ever so long ago. It is queer how those things got thereburied under seventeen feet of beach sands before Nelson got his treasure shaft down to where they reposed. There is no good circumstantial evidence that Nelson "salted" his well, and the discovery seems to be really romantic. All street, between Oak and Page, to see the balloon ascension yesterday afternoon were the mystery was to wonder and speculate. If pirates from a Spanish galleon did land there in the days of pirates and Spanish galleons, and bury a great big iron chest of gold doubloons for some reason or other,

Nelson's Treasure Shaft and Museum there is no good reason why they shouldn't have cached some of their shooting-irons Disappointed Democratic and cutlasses too. Then if they did leave a job lot of weapons there on the beach there is no good reason why they shouldn't have left a chest of gold there too, and if they did leave a chest of gold they left it when they did the cut-

That's the way Captain Nelson argues, anyway, and so it's no wonder that he is elated and feels that calm inward dignity that may attend the consciousness that one is a man of wealth. He is positively sure that the treasure will be in his possession in a day or two.

He was "at home" to a big let of people yesterday. Expecting visitors he had erected a canvas house, in which was arranged the curious things already found. consisting of sundry rusty flintlock guns, bayonet cutlasses and bayonets. Over the hotsting apparatus he and his partner had patriotically raised the flag. With a love of something besides country, they had inscribed on the side of their museum the mystic words, "Admission, 10

Despite this fact, many people went in to look at the old implements of war. Much curiosity was aroused by the inscriptions on the different arms. On the cutlasses was score: 15-13, 7-15, 15-12.

A well-played game, in which Pendegast and Fallon defeated O'Connell and Vogelsang, followed. Score: 15-12, 10-15, 15-9.
Austin Henry, a new local light, and Pendegast in a good game for points, which averaged the Potrero champion two defeats out of three games played, and though he credits. This partners with the cause of defeat lost him some prestige among the amateurs. Score: 15-11, 9-15, 15-13.

The triple handicap between John Jones, the champion of Australia, and Joe Lawless and Joe Lawl claim for a short time in the morning some relic-hunters visited it. As a memento of the visit he, she or they carried away the cannon-ball and a rapier blade that had been placed with the other valuables.

No work was done yesterday and eleven feet of water accumulated in the shaft.
Other implements can be felt in the quicksand and the box is only two feet beneath where the treasure trove have reached.

To-day Captain Nelsen will bring out a donkey engine. With this he expects to be able to clean out the sand and water so as to get at the box in a few days.

Several men well versed in the technical knowledge of arms are examining the records to learn semething of the probabe nationality of the ship from which the wreckage came and the date when it was cast ashore, if that was the way the things #### got there. BUNKS ARE FREE.

The Christian Mission's New Departure.

An Eloquent Appeal Made to Church Members Who Have Forgotten Their Promises.

Two hundred homeless, penniless outcasts slept and snored last night on the of them who knew where he would get his grateful to the philanthropists who had ticket given him by some one who had pur-chased it from the union.

This meant that the unfortunates who had no ticket would be compelled to beg for one or sleep on the street, while there was room for hundreds at the mission. The trustees reconsidered their action in this matter last week, and hereafter the benches in the gallery will be again used by those who have no tickets. They will be permitted to sleep in the place free of charge for three consecutive nights, but must then make room for others. must then make room for others. The mission is suffering severely for the want of funds. When it was organized it was promised $10,000 by church members, but less than half the amount pledged has been paid. Each church interested in the mission was represented by three counselors who were pledged to collect money for the mission among the members of their religious organizations.

There are sixty-five of these counselors, but when the last meeting of the Mission was called only thirteen were present. The su: erintendent of the mission accordingly determined to visit the churches which had promised to support the institution and urge them to redeem their promises. He set out to accomplish this purpose yesterday.

The mission has mailed the following appeal to all who are known to have sympathies with the unfortunate. The Christian Mission Union, 729 Market street in issuing this appeal do so in behalf of the great mass of unfortunate and unemployed, who are constantly applying to us for assistance.

The object of this institution is to provide a home for the homeless and to furnish temporary employment to people who are in need of and are willing to work, and in all other Christian and charitable ways to endeavor to alleviate

Poverty and Clothes. To accomplish this purpose we most respectfully solicit your patronage in purchasing wood and coal from us, which we are prepared to sell at the lowest market prices $300 per month more than they are given now the mission will be sustained.

Stephen Maybell, the self-appointed general of the Army of Heaven at Hand, has been taught by bitter experience that many of the men to whom shelter was given in the little church on Eleventh street were unworthy. They defaced and polluted the floor and seats, and he will hereafter closely floor and seats, and he will hereafter closely floor and seats, and he will hereafter closely crutinize all who wish to use the church as

THE NATIONAL GUARD. Mayor Ellert to Review the Second

Artillery Regiment. Lieutenant-Colonel Dennis Geary has issued orders for the assembling in full uniform of the Second Artillery Regiment at 7:30 P. M. next Saturday at the Mechanics' Pavilion. The parade is for the purpose of taking part in the exercises under the auspices of the Olympic Clab. On the same occasion the command will be reviewed by Mayor Ellert. The lieufenantcolonel commanding asks for the earnest support and co-operation of every member of the Second Artillery on this occasion, as it must be borne in mind that it will require a large attendance and an excellent military appearance to reflect credit on the regiment. The band is excepted from the order.

By the same orders battalion commanders and the commanding officer of Light Battery A are required, without delay, to inspect the platoon, section and squad rolls of their respective commands. They will see that the rolls are correct to date, with the address of the men thereon. address of the men thereon. A copy must at all times be in possession of commanders of subdivisions so that in case of neccessity of subdivisions so that in case of neccessity the regiment can be assembled at the shortest possible notice.

Company A of the Third Infantry, Captain James W. Duffy commanding, attained the distinction of receiving as result of the recent inspection of the Third Infantry the best report on all points. This company is now in a most prosperous condition. Captain Duffy has also been appointed a regimental court for the trial of members charged with infractions of regimental discipline. Since the talk of a new mental discipline. Since the talk of a new armory and a camp this year things are livening up in the Third Infantry. A bet-ter class of officers and enlisted men are developing in the regiment. This is as it

SENT THEM AWAY.

Office=Seekers.

The State Central Committee Returns a Load of Petitions After Deciding on No Indorsements.

There was considerable discussion among Democratic politicians yesterday, regarding the action of the Democratic State Central Committee, at its executive meeting on Saturday night, and little knots of enthusiastic followers of Cleveland, gathered in the hotel corridors weighing the force of the meeting's outcome.

The chief interest was centered in the comnittee's refusal to indorse any candidates for Federal positions, as a committee, although the individual right of members was not interfered with. The reason of the meeting being called was that the Congressional delegation in Washington had, except in one instance, failed to unite on any recommendation to tne President, the single exception being that of O. M. Welburn, for Collector of Internal Revenue. Through their bickerings and differences.

California had lost all chance of any foreign missions. This caused strong pressure to be brought to bear on the executive com-mittee, as the managing body of the Demo-cratic party in this State, to furnish inorsements which the delegates had failed When the committee assembled it was apparent that the members were as much divided in their preferences as had been the delegation, and that unless the unit rule rently very small shield the delegation, and that unless the unit rule was applied, which the members would not onsent to, it would be impossible to secure the case of the superintendency of the mint.

Senator White is vigorously supporting Barry Baldwin. Congressman Maguire is pushing James H. Barry, and Congressman Geary is aggressively advocating the claims of John Daggett.

For the other offices the delegation is much in the same condition, and the outcome is hard to determine. The appointment of Wise was not in any sense the work of the delegation, as Maguire was the only man originally for him. The aprointment is a bitter disappointment to Bosses Dwyer and Sullivan and the machine. Wise has an intense antipathy to both those politicians, and any one who gets into the Custom-house by their favor, will steal in in disguise. It is said that the fact that Wise was not in favor with the local machine was considered by the President a strong point in his favor. At the State Committee meeting, Senator White remarked that Cleveland had said to him, that he wished to appoint Wise, and that he desired to have the delegation indorse him. He said they took the hint promptly, and indorsed him.

Congressman Geary said substantially the same thing, and furthermore that there were great misconceptions as to the importance of delegations. A Congressman who appeared very large in California might be very insignificant in Washington, and the President would do about what he thought the people wanted. Appointments could not be thrust upon him by Senators and Congressmen, and such a thing as making a slate for Mr. Cleveland was an impossibil-

Geary further says that in the matter of securing appointments to subordinate positions, under the heads of departments, the Congressmen would use their influence to have party service rewarded, and to harmonize and unite all elements of the party. hard benches of what was once the gallery of the Bijou Theater. There was not a soul of them who knew where he would get his next meal, but they were all more or less rived at the secretary was instructed to return them to the senders, each one of whom has added another to his list of disappoint reduced the mission, whose transported that it would no longer permit any one to sleep in the old theater who could not produce a ticket given him by some one who had purely and took the evening train for Los Angeles. During the greater part of the afternoon the Senator was in private conference with General Dimond, and the number of times "hold over" and "mint" were mentioned in the rotunda could not well be enumerated. An expectant throng of newspaper men and local politicians waited in the office in the expectation that the Senator would call on the clerk before leaving. He managed, however, to get his bill receipted through the medium of a go-between and made his way to Montgomery street without being discovered, and was on the Oakland pier before the watchers knew he had left the hotel.

Senator White denied himself during the friends.

Senator White denied himself during the day to all callers save a few intimate Deer and Iron-Horse Racing.

Bangor News. Passengers on the up-train over the Bangor and Piscataquis division of the Bangor and Aroostook railroad witnessed an exciting race between a deer and the train last Thursday morning. When just beyond Shirley, and on the level where the train was making fully thirty miles an hour, a big deer came in sight in a wood road just behind the hindermost car. It was a buck, with lofty head and trim limbs. He came along at a rapid gait, overtook the train, and for a mile and a half kept even pace with the engine, sometimes coming within forty yards of the cars. Finally the train crossed the wood road, which had run parallel to the track, and the buck made a break for the deep snow and went out of sight behind some bushes. It is believed that dogs were chasing the deer, so that he Passengers on the up-train over the Ban-

Poverty and Clothes.

New York Sun.
One marked difference between the very poor in the English cities and the corresponding class in American towns is that Every order means a meal and lodging to a hungry man or woman.

Rev. S. P. Holcombe, Superintendent.

The mission charges the same rates for its coal and wood that the retail dealers charge. Yet they have few patrons. There is more wood in their yard at present than they can hope to sell in many weeks and they are therefore unable to give employment to many who would gladly work for their food and lodgings.

The mission has found that there is a good demand for labor at present, and obtains positions for from twelve to eighteen men every day, most of whom are sent to farms.

The directors say that if they can obtain Every order means a meal and lodging to a the latter buy their clothing of tailors and Opens To-Night.

REHEARSALS ARE ALL OVER.

Cæsar, in All His Triumphal Glory, Will Be Revived Each Evening Throughout the Week.

All preparations are being rapidly completed for the Olympic Club Fair. The opening is announced for 8 o'clock this evening, and unless unforseen circumstances arise between now and then the great and novel retinue will be ushered in with a blaze of glory. The retinue in itself is daring enough to attract even the most apathetic, and everything points so far to a grand financial success, whatever it may turn out from an artistic point of view. It is understood that special trains are to be run during the week from all all pleasure-seekers respond to the call there will be some trouble in finding accommodations for the throngs that will gather around the great doors on Larkin street.

to accommodate 4000 persons and probably Ready for the fray standing-room for 10,000 more, so after all the sometime-expressed regret that one of the baseball grounds was not hired for the purpose may not prove to be without basis.

There are seats enough

Those who were impatiently curious had a chance last evening of seeing the pavilion in all its glory. Lights were darting here and there from the roof and all sides of the building. Of course the central attraction is the Roman Coliseum with its arena, wherein stalwart athietes are to engage in mimic warfare with all the desperate vividness of days long since buried in the past. The Greeco-Roman games are the pride and especial care of the club's president, Wil-especial care of the club's president, William Greer Harrison.

"Look at this arena," said Mr. Harrison.

"Don't you think it will do? The only thing that bothers me is that it is not the exact counterpart of the arena of the original Roman Coliseum. That was 300 feet long, whereas ours is only 290. If I had this to do all over again I'd have a regular Coliseum built straight from the ground and corresponding to the real one in every respect. But I guess it will do."

The roof of the coliseum being painted blue gives a very fair representation of an Italian sky, and when the whole 250 electric and the ten calcium lights are turned on tric and the ten calcium lights are turned on the spectstor begins to wonder if it is not daylight after all. Considerable mechanical ingenuity has been exercised in the conof the arena, whereby the director of games, unseen by the populace, can telegraph necessary instructions by a code of signals to any one of the dressing-rooms. The Emperor's box is all ready for the reception of the great enterty although descented the great autocrat, and although desecrated last night by much plebeian usage, will be held sacred from the time of the opening of the show.

Yesterday afternoon was devoted to perfeeting the retiaril and myrmillones in their gladiatorial duties. Concerning this part of the entertainmentitis pretty generally opined that some one is going to get hurt. The savage energy with which the retiarius usually prods at his enemy in this mimic contest bodes no he carries to defend himto carry out the dead?" was a question asked last evening. "Is it not usual to drag them from the arena with ropes?" "Yes, I understand so," was the answer, "but it will not do in our case. You see they all have to get up and live to fight another day, so we must not spoil their clothes. They will be carried out by slaves. A slight departure, that is all."

Probably the most successful portion of the games programme will be the mounted cued by friends on shore, who had mounts for the burpose. They rehearsed their contest last night and gained many friends. It is always a treat to see a soldier ride. The way in which they, without saddle or stirrup, wheel and charge, and, at the word of command, force their horses to flop motionless on the arena, will arouse to flop motionless on the arena, will arouse

Speaking of these horses, an officer said:
"They are all taught to do that. It is not part of our cavalry drill, but in breaking a horse it is usual to throw him, as once on the ground he becomes perfectly subdued."
The horses are fine, intelligent animals, with a keen appreciation of all that is going on—ready for the fray, as are their riders.

With regard to the charlot races, it is feared that the arena will be too narrow to afford complete success in this. Two to afford complete success in this. Two chariots can hardly race abreast and turn simultaneously. But this defect will be made up for by some very neat exhibitions of wheeling, the charioteers being army officers from the Presidio.

"Casar's triumph through the streets of "Cæsar's triumph through the streets of Rome" is to be the character of the intro-ductory proceedings. The procession will include all the pageantry of the triumphal entry of Cæsar into Rome after his successful return from Gaul.

Cæsar will be attended by a portion of his army, gladiators, captives, foreign representatives—all in triumphal procession.

They will march around the arena until they reach the triumphal arch, when Casar and suite will retire, to enter presently into the imperial loge. After the address the vestal virgins will sing hymns, and then the signal will be given for the games to start. The whole representation will occupy about one hour and three-quarters. Quite a damper was put upon the proceedings last evening by the uncalled for behavior of the sacrificial ox, which sacred animal arriving safely from its home in Berkeley was delivered over to the care of the director of games, G. A. Adam. Un-fortunately the ox did not appear to relish the treat in store for him and on the director attempting to lead him to his stall he very deliberately raised one hind foot and kicked his leader on the knee. Luckily the blow was not a severe one, but it was the blow was not a severe one, but it was sufficiently so to cause the injured director to say "Lead him away, some one; I've had enough of him. And tell the propertyman to see that his horns are painted gold, directly."

Apart from the Coliseum the show takes the nature of most fairs. Even the Emperor's drawing-room will be utilized to advantage. The apartment is beautifully decorated and flowers, vases and incensepots are there in profusion. The visitor to this apartment will be accommodated with imperial nectar handed by slaves, while 150 electric lights play upon his dazzled vision. electric lights play upon his dazzled vision. The nectar, it is presumed, will be of a strictly temperate nature. Plenty of space has been appropriated to the dressing-rooms, which are large and commodious. Here supers, soldiers, sacrirising majestically amid its lofty spires. The model is said to have taken twenty-seven years to construct. Altogether the fair promises well. An enormous amount of time, trouble and expense have been used to make it a success, and the managers have worked very hard.

"I have set my head on this," said President Harrison last night. "I have long wished to have something of the kind. You see, it is after all only the carrying out of a suggestion put before the club fully three the public in complete readiness. A FAIRMOUNT GRIEVANCE. Sewage Allowed to Escape on the Open Streets.

The residents and those owning property in the Fairmount Tract are complaining of the need of outlets for the sewers on Randall street, from Chenery to Palmer, and on several other streets where sewers have been laid but no outlets provided. Connections have been made by a number of the householders and the sewage turned into the newly built sewer, which in turn carries it on, where it is allowed to flow into neighboring property and on the public streets.

Repeated requests have been made to the Board of Health and the Supervisors for relief, but owing to the objections of a few large non-resident land-owners protests have stopped the work of continuing the sewers so that connection with the Mission-street sewer system could be provided. The Fairmount lot-owners are anxious to know how much longer the nuisance is to continue, and are bitter in their denunciaparts of the State, and if ALONG THE FRONT.

tion of the few who prevent the needed improvement.

Some Chinese Villagers Set on Shore.

Another of the American Navigation Company's Boats Due-Visiting the French War Vessel.

Sunday along the front yesterday was spent in an unusually quiet way, with the exception of at the ferries, where thousands of people passed to and fro from the steam. ers on excursions to Oakland, Alameda and El Campo on the other side and Golden Gate Park and the Cliff House on this.

The French corvette Duchaffault was extensively visited, and all day long the pleasant faces of the vessel's officers could be seen at the companion way ready to receive with a smile any person who desired to in-spect the vessel.

The Duchaffault is by no means a modern war vessel, although she would compare very favorably with some of the "gun-boats" which Uncle Sam sends, for instance, to China to protect American inter-ests. Her battery is light, being composed of six five and a half inch rifled cannon and six fourteen-pound Hotchkiss rapid-firing

The Duchaffault's officers and men are a fine-looking lot of fellows and seem to feel very proud of their ship, even if she is not a wery proud of their ship, even lishe is not a modern cruiser.

The sloop Halcyon met with a mishap while cruising round the bay yesterday forenoon. A squall carried away part of her rigging and left her in a helpless condition, drifting swiftly out to sea. Captain Tuttle of the Hartley went to the rescue and towed the injured Halcyon alongside of section 1 of the seawall.

A driver of a milk-wagon owned by the

A driver of a milk-wagon owned by the Mill Valley ranch can congratulate himself on having a very narrow escape from being severely injured, if not killed, yesterday.

In stepping to his seat his foot slipped and he fell between the shafts of the wagon. The horse attached thereto took fright and dashed along East street with the man dangling helplessly at his heels. The fellow clung on bravely and managed to gain the seat and reins, stopping the runaway before any further damage was incurred than the loss of a few cans of milk.

The steamer Bay City brought back an unusually large crowd on its 5:30 o'clock trip from El Campo. Several fights occurred on board among the rowdy element, but nothing more serious than a black eye or two was reported.

or two was reported.

The steamship City of Puebla arrived at 6 o'clock from Victoria and Seattle with a full list of passengers. A large force of revenue inspectors was immediately detailed to keep a sharp lookout for the $20,000 worth of opium which is said to be coming this way from Victoria.

Those of the Chinese on the steamer China who had consular certificates were privileged to land yesterday, but the majority remained on board. Some of the World's Fair Chinese will go East via the Northern Pacific at Tacoma, while others will go via Ogden. The Atlantic and Pacific Railroad will carry about 240 of them.

A Whitehall boat manned by two small boys was upset near North Beach yesterday afternoon. The occupants clung desperately to the upturned boat and were ressword tournament. There will be six contestants, all of whom are soldiers from the Presidio, who have brought their own mounts for the purpose. They rehearsed their contest last night and gained many friends. It is always a treat to see a soldier pier, the loading place of the Keweenaw. It is definitely settled that the St. Paul will not be rechartered, as so much freight is not be rechartered, as so much freight is > small part of it, as she is a vessel of only 1400 tons register. A HUMAN DOLLIE. Little Kitty Rented Out by the Day to Rich Ladies. New York Jonraal "Yes, I'm the little girl that gets rented day? Thus piped a flaxen-haired, ruddy-cheeked young person, whose age could not have exceeded 5 years, yet in whose eyes there rested all the seriousness of 60. Her description of herself as "the little girl that gets rented out," though very odd, happened to be quite accurate. The child was little more than a human chattel.

In one of the morning papers yesterday the following advertisement appeared:

out. Do you want me by the hour or by the

"To rent, by the hour or day, for the entertainment of wealthy but childless addies, a bright, beautiful, golden-haired ittle girl baby; neatly dressed; 5 years The address appended to this strange notice was followed up and little Miss Goldenhair was found at home. She appeared with a some what dissipated. looking doll, and also with unmistakable traces of a recent raid upon the jam closet. The advertisement had described her faith. The advertisement had described her falth-fully, for she proved to be exceedingly pretty, and possessed of that precocious brightness which belongs solely to New York ladies of her age. Her deep black eyes contrasted quaintly with the wheat-colored curls which tumbled about them, and her face might have smiled out of one of Gainsborough's paintings. And yet she was hired out to customers at so much per hour.

"If you wait a minute, mamma will be "If you wait a minute, mamma will be down," continued the child. She is fixing her hair, you know, before she goes to the office. Mamma works as a typewriter, and that's just the reason she rents me out. She can't stay with me herself, and so she lets me spend the day with nice ladies, who give candy and flowers. The ladies haven't any little girls of their own and they pay mamma to let me visit them." mamma to let me visit them. At this point the enterprising mother entered. She was a widow of youthful appearance and quiet manners. "Isuppose," she began, "that you think it very heartless of me to rent out my little daughter in this manner. But it really len't so. Kitty and are alone in the world and I have to work for her support. While I am at the office

WOMEN

Aches and weaknesses, find in Cuticura Anti-Pain PLASTER the first and only instantaneous pain-killing strengthening plaster. In ONE MINUTE it relieves aching sides and back, hip, kidney and uterine pains, strains and weaknesses, rheumatic, sciatic, sharp and nervous pains, coughs, colds and chest pains. Odorous with balsam, spice and pine, it is the sweetest as well as surest, safest and best plaster in the world. Price: 25c.; five, $1.00. At all druggists or by mail. POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CORP., BOSTON.

night, and the work will have to be pushed with great vigor during to-day in order to get everything cleared up for the opening. But everything is in good shape and the managers have no fear that at the appointed hour this evening the entrance doors of the pavilion will be flung wide and the most daring and novel show ever offered to the people of San Francisco will be opened to the public in complete readiness.

every day the child would have to be left alone had not this plan been suggested to me by friends. At first I began by letting Kitty go to one lady for a day each week. Then another lady asked leave to hire the child, and before long we had quite a number of patrons on our list.

"Seeing the chance to make money, and at the same time to keep Kitty constantly amused. I decided to advertise. I only perat the same time to keep Kitty constantly amused, I decided to advertise. I only permit Kitty to remain out during the daylight hours. My charges are usually $2 a day, or a quarter an hour. The ladies tell me that Kitty is the greatest pleasure to them. She is very clever, and hardly ever cries."

Here Kitty took the floor again. "My name," she said, "is Kitty, but at nearly all the houses I visit the ladies give me different names. At one place I am called Vera. That is the name of the lady's own little girl, who is dead. At another place I am Marguerite. I like that name, because it sounds so grown up. My other names are Blanche, Darothy, Mollie, Mabel, Lillie and Freda. A very old lady calls me her little Maude, because I am like her little sister, who died ever so long ago. Sometimes I get mixed in my names and don't answer when they call me.

"Many ladies send their carriages for me or take me out shopping with them. They always say that I am 'a little cousin from Philadelphia.' That is not true, of course, and I don't like to be told I come from Philadelphia bits but the logies are a rise that Philadelphia, but the ladies are so nice that I let them tell all the stories they want.

"How do I like being rented out? Oh, I like it well enough. I was real lonely while mamma was away, but now we are both out working at the same time.

"The gentlement that visit houses where I 'The gentlemen that visit houses where I visit give me presents and want to kiss me. I think they do that just to please the ladies who hire me, don't you?"

Further description of the life of a rentedout infant was here interrupted by the arrival of a smartly appointed brougham, with a crest on the door panel. The conveyance was for Kitty, who straightway trotted off to make hereit root for a day'r trotted off to make herself neat for a day's outing. Not a Serious Disaster. "Say," exclaimed Mr. Puffem, junior member of the firm of Puffem & Bilk, as he rushed into the fire company's station, "say, rushed into the fire company's station, "say, can't I have an engine and hose sent right up to our office in the Tower block?"

"Cert'ny," said the captain, jumping for his rubber coat. "What is it? Big blaze? Betier turn in a 4-11, had I? Or is it—"

"Blaze?" interrupted Mr. Puffem, "who said anything about a blaze? The firm is sending out a big lot of circular letters and we want an engine to wet the Columbian stamps for us."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

LATEST SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

Arrived.
Sunday. April 16.
Stmr Scotia, Johnson, 13 hours from Noyo; 7787 railroad ties. to I E Thayer.
Stmr Santa Cruz, Nicholson, — hours from San Diego, etc; produce, to Goodall. Perkins & Co. BIRTHS-MARRIAGES-DEATHS.

Birth, marriage and death notices sent by mail will not be inserted. They must be handed in a either of the publication offices and be indorsed with the name and residence of persons authorized to have the same published.

BORN. HARRIS-In this city, April 16, 1893, to the wife of Ralph Harris, a daughter. MEYER-In this city, April 16, 1893, to the wife of Simon Meyer, a daughter. OALEY-In this city, April 10, 1893, to the wife of C. F. Daley, a daughter. UNSHEE-In this city. April 14, 1893, to the wife of Willis A. Dunshee, a daughter. FRALEY-In this city. April 14, 1893, to the wife of George B. Fraley, a son. CORENTZ-In this city, April 13, 1893, to the wife of Emil Lorentz, a son. KELLY—In this city, April 14, 1893, to the wife of Joseph G. Kelly, a son.

BRIEGER—In Arroyo Grande, April 14, 1893, to the wife of A. Brieger, a daughter.

LEVY—In New York City, April 16, 1893, to the wife of Charles M. Levy, a son.

MARRIED. CONNOLLEY-FARNSWORTH-In this city, April 11, by the Rev. Dr. Spalding, Edward D. Connot ley and Mary C. Farnsworth, both of San Francisco. McCORMICK-CULL-April 13, 1893, by the Rev. Father Lagan, J. P. McCormick to Helen Cuil, both of San Francisco.

DIED. Lloyd, Sarah A. Llodel, Sini Lee, Richard E. Myer, Selig O'Neill, Jeremiah Olson, Andrew P. O'Connor, Elizabeti Geissberger, Rosina Hauson, Fredrickke Haley, Patrick Jessen, Mary Shan, Flien

PRAGGEN-In this city, April 15, 1893, Louis, beloved husband of Anna Praggen, and father of Bertha, Henry and Louisa Praggen, and brother in law of Charles Adeckes, a native of Neuenhausen, Hanover, Germany, aged 48 years 7 months and Hanover, Germany, aged 48 years 7 months and 25 days.

BS Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral THIS DAY (Monday), at 1 o'clock P. M., from his late residence, 224 Francisco street, hear Powell, thence to Washington Hall, 35 Eddy street, where the funeral services will be held under the anspices of the Norddeutscher Verein at 2 o'clock P. M. Interment I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

COLLINS-In this city, April 14, 1833, Mrs. Mary Collins, beloved mother of Mra. Mary Richards, a native of the parish of Athione, County Roscommon, Ireland, aged 69 years.

BF Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral THIS DAY (Monday), at 8:30 o'clock A. M., from her late residence, 10 Authony street, thence to St. Patrick's Church, where a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated for the repose of her soul, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M., Interment Holy Cross Cemetery, Piease enit flowers.

O'CONNOR—In this city, April 15, 1893, Elizabeth behaved abstract of the soul property. O'CONNOR-In this city, April 15, 1893, Elizabeth beloved sister of Catherine, John, Daniel and Hugh O'Connor and Mrs. Jane Roland, a native of County Derry, Ireland, aged 50 years. [Canada papers please copy.]

And Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral THIS DAY (Monday, at 8:30 o'clock A. M., from the undertaking pariors of McAvoy & Gailagher, 20 Fifth street, thence to St. Marry's Cathedral for services. Interment Mount Calvary Cometery.

terment Mount Calvary Cemetery.

LEE—In this city, April 15, 1893, Richard E., be loved husband of Maria Lee, father of Mamie-Joseph, Susan and Edward Lee, son of the late Susan Lee, and brother of Francis, John and Joseph Lee, a native of Waukegan, Ill., aged 43 years and 19 days. [Waukegan and Chicago papers please copy.]

En Friends and acquaintances and members of Harmony Lodge No. 9, A. O. U. W., and St. Patrick's Alliance No. 2, are respectfully invited to attend the funeral THIS DAY (Monday), at 8:15 o'clock A. M., from his late residence, 545 Elizabeth street, thence to St. James Church, where a requiem high mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.

CASSERLY—In this city, April 15, 1893, Augusting

at 9 o'clock A.M. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.

CASSERLY—In this city, April 15, 1893, Augustine, eldest son of leresa and the late Engine Casserly, a native of San Francisco, aged 32 years.

AP Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral TO-MORKOW (Tuesday), at 10 o'clock A.M., from St. Mary's Cathedral, Van Ness avenue. Interment private. Please omit flowers.

O'NEILL—In this city, April 16, 1893, Jeremiah O'Neill, beloved brother of Mrs. Linden and Neille O'Neill, and uncle of Mrs. N. Bell, Charles Abrens, Mrs. James O'Keefe, Mrs. Kate Thomas, Mrs. B. Reynolds, and Edward, Frank and Kittle Linden, and Jerry, Dinnie, John and Tom O'Neill, a native of Caherciveen, County Kerry, Ireland, aged 59 years. [Amador (Cal.) and Beverly (Mass.) papers please copy.]

BP Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral TO-MORROW (Tuesday), at 8:30 o'clock A.M., from the undertaking par ors of Theoder Dierks, 957 Mission street, between Fith and Sixth, thence to St. Patrick's Church, where a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul, commencing at 9 o'clock A.M. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery, Please omit flowers.

2 HANSON—In this city, April 15, 1893, Fredrickke, dearly beloved wife of J. P. Hanson, and aunt of the late Mrs. Bolstedt, a native of Norway, aged 70 years. 70 years.

28 Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral 10 MORROW (Tuesday), at 10 clock P.M. from her late residence, 08842 Vallejo street, thence to I. O. O. F. Hall: Interment Laurei Hill Cemetery. Interment Laurel Hilt Cemetery.

GEISSERGER—In this city, April 16, 1893. Rosina, relict of the late John Geissberger, and mother of Mrs. C. Souther, Mrs. Elizabeth Heane and Louis Geissberger, a native of Alsace, France, aged 73 years.

APP Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral TO-MORROW (Tuesday), at 9 o'clock A. M., from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. C. Souther, 6.7 Vallejo street thence to St. Boniface's Church, Golden Gate avenue, where a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated for the ropose of her soul, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. Interment Oakland, via the 11:15 A. M. creek boat.

USON—In this city, April 16, 1893, Andrew P., beloved husband of Lena Olson (nee Mayrisch), a native of Sweden, aged 32 years 6 months and 6 days.

CAIN—In this city, April 13, 1893, Edward Cain.

6 days.

CAIN—In this city, April 13, 1893, Edward Cain, a native of New York, aged 56 years.

HEALY—In this city, April 13, 1893, Patrick Healy, a native of Ireland, aged 55 years.

SHAN—In this city, April 13, 1893, Mrs. Ellen Shan, a native of Ireland, aged 45 years.

MYER—In this city, April 14, 1893, Selig Myer, a gative of Prussia. LLOYD-In this city, April 14, 1893, Sarah A-Lloyd, a native of New York, aged 84 years. LIEDEL-In this city, Sine Liedel, a native of Den-mark, aged 42 years. GRANT-in this city, April 15, 1893, M. C. Grant, a native of Scotland, aged 76 years.

UNITED UNDERTAKERS' EMBALMING PARLORS. Everything Requisite for First-class Funeral at Reasonable Rates. Telephone 3167. 27 and 23 Fifth street.

MCAVOY & GALLACHER, FUNERAL DIRECTORS and EMBALMER 20 Fifth St., Opp. Lincoln School. Telephone 3080.

In SAN MATEO COUNTY; NON-SECTARIAN; laid out on the lawn plan; perpetual care; beautiful, permanent and easy of access; see it before Luying a burial place elsewhere.

City Office, 9 City Hall Avenue.

del6

MISCELLANEOUS. Three C'IL AG Pieces Bureau and Washstand

Sample Sets Pieces

Sample Prices

In Dainty White Maple for $35.00 The two Bedroom Sets shown above are taken from several HUNDRED patterns. They give you just a faint suggestion of the wisdom of selecting from an unlimited stock marked at the lowest of figures. You can't buy the same elsewhere for the same money There are not many of these patterns either CALIFORNIA

FURNITURE COMPANY

(N. P. Cole & Co.) 117-123 Geary Street

TERRIBLE DANGER POINTS

THE DEADLY PNEUMONIA, the racked lung, the dreaded Consumption.

Put on duty only the strongest guard, the oldest and most faithful stand-by,

PULMONIC SYRUP. Break up your cold at once. Stop your cough, Drive out that inflammation in time. Defy that Pneumonia. Cure that Consumption. THE PULMONIC SYRUP

DR. SCHENCK'S

Dr. Schenck's Practical Treatise on Diseases of Lungs, Stomach and Liver mailed free to all appli-cants. Dr. J. H. Schenck & Son, Philadelphia, Pa-PROVIDENCE WAREHOUSE AND Providence, R. I., a favorable distribu for the East. Goods consigned to the care of this Company will receive our best attention. Correspondence solicited.

Most Approved Method of Mechanical COLD STORAGE for Perishable Goods.
FRUIT A SP. CIALTY. FRUIT A SP. CHALTY.

Even Temperature, Dry Air, Good Circulation.
Rates of storage as low as in New York or Boston.

SPACIOUS WAREHOUSES, ELECTRIC HOISTS.

Invoices { Taken from } Freight lines.

A. C. BARSTOW, Pres. ROWLAND HAZARD, Treas.
S. J. FOSTER, Manager.
P. O. Box 1114.

ap4 78t

ANDREWS' UPRIGHT FOLDING BEDS And Other Makes. OFFICE AND SCHOOL FURNITURE,

CYPRESS LAWN CEMETERY.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE. DR. CIBBON'S DISPENSARY,

Opera and Church Chairs.

As is used in such cases, there will be some considerable scramble to get things ready for the opening. Two gangs of men were at work all yesterday and through the work all yesterday and th

Richly Polished, Solid Oak, French Bevel Mirror, Splendidly Made and Finished, Nice and Dust Proof Drawers.