

SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, FRIDAY, JUNE 15, 1888.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"M. M. L."
The Herald of Intellectuals and the Advertiser.

It is the only one of its kind in the world. It is the only one that is not only a pleasure to read, but also a source of information and instruction. It is the only one that is not only a pleasure to read, but also a source of information and instruction. It is the only one that is not only a pleasure to read, but also a source of information and instruction.

DON'T GO INTO THE COUNTRY
WITHOUT IT!
IMMEDIATELY RELIEVES AND CURES
Scurvy, Poison Ivy,
Scalds and Fire Bites,
Strained Muscles and Tired Feet.

AS A TOILET ARTICLE.

The ladies desire to be immaculate in every respect. They desire to be clean and fresh, and to have their skin clear and bright. They desire to have their hair soft and shining, and their complexion clear and rosy. They desire to have their feet soft and smooth, and their hands soft and delicate. They desire to have their clothes clean and fresh, and their perfumes sweet and fragrant. They desire to have their lives full of health and happiness, and their souls full of peace and joy.
