F. D. R., Neutrality Trade Treaty Powers Few Tax Changes Insurance Lobby

By PAUL MALLON WASHINGTON, Nov. 39-Most important matter to be handled in the coming Congress is likely to be one not yet mentioned officially.

Before President Roosevelt caught the boat for South America he permitted some of his counselors to understand that he thought the greatest pending question is neutrality.

The exact nature of the proposal he has in mind will be determined, no doubt, by the potency of the eaty to be negotiated in the next Lew weeks at Buenos Aires. But the subject is certain to furnish a dominant theme for his message to Congress, and perhaps also, his second about renewing public works exnditures. Mr. Roosevelt has been paring to cut PWA appropriasharply. However, this is one light with Congress which he is almost certain to lose.

The President and his advisers have not made up their minds on tax legislation. Congressional leaders plan to pass nothing except a routine bill renewing all but two or three of the nuisance taxes which expire in June. They do not even intend to modify the corporation tax law in any important particular, although they are talking as if they would. However, the Treasury is secretly at work on several general administrative tax revisions, one of which would in-crease the capital gains tax to discourage investors from holding on to stock gains. The Treasury will assert it needs the revenue, but Gustave Bulliuss, 58, Giennale; Rog-other Administration authorities ert Murray, 56, 1237 Maple street, Four its effect on the stock market. Passengers Thrown Into Panic; 13 Injured in 14-Auto Pileup on Bayshore

Heavy fog, one of the thickest of the year, yesterday caused the injury of 13 persons in a 14-car pileupon the Bayshore highway near Milis Field, and a crash between two ferryboats in which 200 passengers were thrown into a panic fic for two hours.

In the ferry crash, no one was seriously hurt although scores were jarred and shocked by the impact. Although the heavy fog blanketed most of the Bay Region, normal traffic on the San Francisco-Oakterruption, due to the illumination of the sodium vapor lights on the roadway of the structure, bridge officials said.
