AROUND THE WORLD.

A Priest Averts a Great Disaster.
 WHEAT GARDENERS WARNED.
 A STRIKE STORY FROM CHICAGO—PHILADELPHIA LANDED IN CHINA.

The Vatican, it is reported, has been notified that the Pope has ordered the suspension of all religious services in the United States for a period of three months, on account of the strike of the Chicago meat packers. This order, it is said, is a direct result of the Pope's displeasure with the strike, which he considers a violation of the sacredness of the Sabbath.

THE DEPRESSION IN WHEAT.
 Some of the wheat gardeners in the West are beginning to feel the effects of the depression in the market. It is reported that the price of wheat has fallen to a point that is causing many to doubt the wisdom of planting more this year.

PHILADELPHIA LANDED IN CHINA.
 A ship from Philadelphia has arrived in China, bringing with it a large quantity of goods and passengers. This marks a new step in the trade between the United States and the Far East.

A BUNCH OF RUFFIANE REWARD.
