

SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, TUESDAY, JULY 30, 1918

WRECK, KILLING SEVEN, DAMAGED TO MOTORMAN

Operator Is Held Responsible for Smash-Up on Line in Visitation Valley

CORONER'S JURY FINDING

Body Recommends Practice of Operating Cars With One Man Be Abolished

George W. Swetman, a motorman, 1219 Harrison street, was held responsible yesterday by a coroner's jury for the six-car wreck in Visitation Valley on July 13 which caused seven deaths. The jury also recommended that the practice of operating one man cars be abolished.

Gavin McNab Sues Mrs. Clara Stocker

Says Contract for Legal Services Was Broken

Gavin McNab, through his attorneys, yesterday filed suit against Mrs. Clara Stocker for breach of contract. McNab claims that he had paid Stocker $15,000 for legal services which she failed to perform.

Cliff House to Close

Upstairs Dining Room

The Cliff House, which has been a landmark in the city since its opening in 1880, is to close its upstairs dining room.

Financial Delegate of Russian Embassy Here

W. J. Hartley, attached to the Russian Embassy in Washington as financial delegate, is in the city to investigate the best way to handle the money from Russia in America.

Noodles Case Not Within Jurisdiction

The case of the noodles which were found in the stomach of a man who died in the city is not within the jurisdiction of the coroner.

Outbreak of Tetanus In Army of Kaiser

Outbreak of tetanus in the German army, according to the Reichstag, has been attributed to the use of contaminated water.

BERKELEY NEWS

BERKELEY, CALIF., July 29.—The city council has passed an ordinance providing for the improvement of the city streets.

PEN PICTURES of NOTABLE CALIFORNIANS—LXI

Portrait of Lyle H. Pedlar, Attorney-at-Law, with text: LYLE H. PEDLAR Attorney-at-Law. Includes address: 1111 Market Street, San Francisco, Cal.

SAFETY STATION ONE IN NAME ONLY

Lack of Lights on Isle at Van Ness and Geary Cause of Many Mishaps

By LEON J. PINKSON

Motorists of the city are up in arms as a result of numerous accidents that have occurred in motor cars and in the vicinity of the safety station that was recently erected by the city fathers at the junction of Van Ness avenue and Geary street.

CHANDLER NEW BACK PROBE The H. A. Rabinow, president and general manager of the Pacific Motor Vehicle Association, has been called to the attention of the city fathers...

CHILDREN OF KING OF SPAIN ADMIRE HORSES

The children of the King and Queen of Spain have inherited from their father his love for horses. In the accompanying photograph, Princess Beatrice and Christian, children of Spain's ruler, are shown ready to leave the Palace Royal for a ride on horseback.

WITNESS CALLS HAYDEN SNEAK IN BOARD ROOM

Thomas Zant Ejected From Inside Rail as Climax to Worthy Battle

By H. A. RABINOW

After he had called Supervisor J. Thomas Hayden a "dirty sneak," J. Hayden was ejected from the board room of the Municipal Railway department for the first time in the history of the city.

STEVEDORE RUN OVER AND KILLED BY TRUCK

David Latta, 47 years old, was killed by a truck at the intersection of Broadway and Market streets.

Stockton Warehouses Given Rate Increase

The San Francisco warehousemen have given permission yesterday to raise the rates on the stock of goods in the city.

Committee Begins Drive for Nurses

Defense Councils and Red Cross Ready to Enroll

The California Women's Committee of the Council of National and State Defense has begun a drive to enroll nurses in the city.

Hold-Up Attempt Foiled by Wit of Woman in Auto

Mrs. O. A. Hale Eludes Man in Motor Car Who Orders Her to Halt

How the prowess of mind of Mrs. O. A. Hale, widow of the founder of the San Jose department store, foiled an attempt to hold her up.

Students' Chaplain Leaves Santa Clara

Rev. D. Giacobbi Departs for Mt. St. Michaels

Rev. D. Giacobbi, chaplain of the University of Santa Clara, has left for Mt. St. Michaels.

Boatbacks Relinquish Boost in Shine Price

Shine price of boatbacks has been reduced by the market.

Diagonal Crossings Forbidden to Pedestrians

Pedestrians are prohibited from crossing Market diagonally at any place except crossings to be designated by the police.

New Market-St. Traffic Laws Pass

Receiver for Property of Goodwin Harms

Diagonal Crossings Forbidden to Pedestrians

Receiver for Property of Goodwin Harms

Diagonal Crossings Forbidden to Pedestrians

Diagonal Crossings Forbidden to Pedestrians

Diagonal Crossings Forbidden to Pedestrians

Diagonal Crossings Forbidden to Pedestrians

Diagonal Crossings Forbidden to Pedestrians

2 Postoffice Clerks And Woman Indicted

W. J. Hartley, a postoffice clerk, and two women are indicted for the theft of money from the postoffice.

Passport Agent for S. F. Office Arrives

P. N. Bunker, who is to be in charge of the State Department passport agency here, arrived yesterday.

Grocer Attached and Cash Register Robbed

Oakland, July 29.—John Robredo, proprietor of a grocery store at Telegraph avenue, was "tough-tuned" yesterday.

PORTOLA LOUVRE

Lunchroom

Armand's Complexion Powder

In the Little Pink & White Boxes

Armand's Complexion Powder

In the Little Pink & White Boxes

Armand's Complexion Powder

In the Little Pink & White Boxes

Armand's Complexion Powder

In the Little Pink & White Boxes

Armand's Complexion Powder advertisement with image of a woman and product boxes. Text: The VERY NEWEST ARRIVAL. A tiny has for your dressing table, in pink and white with Louis XVI modulation on top and looking for all the world as though it had just left the shop of a chic Parisian milliner. It contains the most perfect face powder—a say the users of it—ever offered American women.