PARTED TWICE IN TWO YEARS

Remarriage of Chester and Thelma D. Wright Results in Second Appeal for Divorce

MERCHANT BEATS HIS WIFE Judge Stoss Gives Relief to Woman Who Testifies That She Was Cruelly Abused

For the second time within two years Thelma D. Wright and Chester F. Wright, the wealthy merchant couple, have appeared before the court. Judge Stoss, about the 1st of June, last, gave Mrs. Wright a divorce on the ground of cruelty. The date later they were remarried. After ten months of wedded life, Mrs. Wright filed a new petition for divorce, practically repeating the charges of cruelty made in her first suit. This suit was heard yesterday by Judge Stoss, who awarded Mrs. Wright a divorce after listening to testimony that showed that Wright is a fit subject for a divorce. The latter testified that she had been cruelly treated by her husband. She said that she had been beaten and that she had been kept in a state of terror. She also testified that she had been kept in a state of terror and that she had been kept in a state of terror.

DUFFY TELLS ON WONG DIN

Expressman Swears Against the Chinese Schemer Who Planned Ma Foo's Escape

IS A WILLING WITNESS Owing to the Vigilance and Honesty of Deputy Marshal Barnham, Plot Is Exposed

Wong Din was placed on trial before a jury yesterday in the United States District Court on an indictment charging him with having conspired with John Duff to secure the illegal landing of Ma Foo, a Chinese convict, by substituting another Chinaman for him. The case will be argued before the court by Attorney General Hanley. Deputy Marshal Barnham testified that he had discovered the plot to land Ma Foo. He said that he had seen Duff and Wong Din in a room at the Hotel de France, where they were plotting to land Ma Foo.
