

THE MORNING CALL, SAN FRANCISCO, MONDAY, JULY 23, 1894.

POPPER'S REVOLT.
How It Is Viewed in His Own Party.
DEMOCRATS ARE DISHUEST.
They Think That He Acted All Too Hastily.

POPPER DEFENDS HIS COURSE.
He Denies That He Ever Spoke Disparagingly of the President.
Purging the Ranks.

Mr. Popper was much indignant with the Democrats who were attacking him for his course. He said that he had never spoken disparagingly of the President, and that he had never advocated the purging of the ranks. He said that he was only doing what he thought was right for the party.

THE NORTH POLE.
A Local Inventor's Plan for Reaching It.
TO USE A SUBMARINE BOAT.
A Fantastic Imagination Equal to Jules Verne's.
NO DETAILS IS FORGOTTEN.

Baffled Buzglars.
An Unsuccessful Attempt at Robbery at North Beach.
James Grant and Michael Gentry were the victims of a robbery at North Beach. The robbers were baffled by the watchfulness of the police.

SUTRO FOR MAYOR.
The People's Party After Him.
HE MAY ENTER THE RACE.
Has Consented to Meet a Committee.
HIS ROAD TO THE CLIFF HOUSE.
Fully Expects to Secure the Defeat of the Refounding Bill—His Methods.

As has been shown by the fact that he has been elected to the position of mayor of San Francisco, Mr. Sutro is a man of great ability and energy. He is expected to be a strong candidate for the position of mayor in the future.

POPULAR DEFENSES.
The Committee on the State of the Republic.
The Committee on the State of the Republic has been appointed to investigate the conduct of the President and his administration. The committee will report to the Senate on its findings.
