The Kite and the Secretary

Edward Thayer, private secretary to Mr. Thayer, says a kite he had made for the purpose of being sent to the secretary of the United States, but which he did not send, was in his possession. He was among his friends waiting for the kite to be taken to the office, but he was unable to do so. The kite was made of paper and was in the shape of a bird. It was found in the office of the secretary of the United States, and was taken to the office of the secretary of the United States. The kite was made of paper and was in the shape of a bird.
