

SKATING IS ONLY HALF AN EVENING'S ENJOYMENT

After Meeting of Monday Night Club at Rink George A. Pope Is Host to Peninsula Set at Dance at the S Francis

BY CHOLLY FRANCISCO

WHEN the average citizen and his wife spend a couple of hours or so on the ice they consider that they have done full justice to the sport and even feel that they can brag about it just a bit. Not so with leisure society.

Monday night, after pending the entire evening skating, many members of the Monday Night Skating Club felt that the evening hours around midnight could still yield some fun for them. George A. Pope invited the Burlingame members and some of their friends to his guests at an impromptu dance.

The fact that Mrs. Pope was attired in a way to make a fashionable appearance in a ballroom did not deter any one. The Italian ballroom was loaned for the remainder of the evening and a special orchestra secured and dancing was enjoyed during supper.

Many of the guests had been spectators during the ice sports and these were turning very soon about the dancing, while those who had been doing two-steps and jiltz figures on the ice were not the least fatigued for the perennial indoor sport which society never wears out.

Mrs. Eugene Murry, who was injured some time ago was again able to resume her skating and entered into the spirit of the evening with fine spirits. While quite a few have been hurt during the earlier stages of learning the intricacies of skating, no one has been willing to give it up. Quite the contrary for it is the theory among the skaters that one would lose one's pick in everything if a little thing like a few broken bones would be permitted to make one timid for the rest of one's natural life.

Ice Benefit

THE Arctic sports night to-morrow at the Wiser Garden, Sutter and Steiner streets in aid of the California Home for the Deaf, is quite likely to be the prettiest and most interesting ice skating yet of the month held this season.

The carnival is to continue from 8 o'clock until midnight with Cassassa's band in service during the interval. Two hours of general skating for the public will be interrupted with exhibitions of the fox-trot on skates, a lacrosse match between the Champion and the Clactonians clubs, the ice baseball by the Menlo Park and the Skating club teams and half a dozen diversions to make the programme attractive.

Good-by Luncheon

MRS. FLETCHER RYER, who departed for another day or so, was hostess yesterday at a luncheon at the St. Francis where she was greeted by a large number of friends.

Fun in Honolulu

FROM Honolulu come reports of the jolly times enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Chamberlin, who sailed for the islands a few weeks ago for a brief visit. P. D. Napp, who returned to his island home on the same steamer with the Chamberlins, gave a dinner for them at Honolulu, and they have made a number of interesting detours.

Thanksgiving Gifts

EVERY year at the Thanksgiving season it has been the gracious custom for the friends of the Protestant Episcopal Old Ladies' Home to make their annual donation to this institution. Thus the bread and butter needs of the home are diminished for the regular subscribers to the institution, and know that many persons who cannot give regular contributions would glad to send gifts for the Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Woolsey is here shown wearing the gown of capacious pockets which are to serve as the mysterious depths of the grab-bag.

BAZAAR AND DANCE FOR HOSPITAL

Real Bargains Will Be on Sale; Christmas Gifts Will Be Specialty.

SOCIETY women who are sponsors for the Children's Hospital are to-day giving an afternoon and evening tea dance and bazaar at the St. Francis Hotel for the social service fund of the hospital, and everyone is more or less interested in this charity.

The bazaar will open at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. I. N. Walter, in charge of this department of the entertainment and benefit, says that the articles on sale will go at really bargain prices, so generous has been the response of donors to the call for suitable articles for the sale. The things on sale will afford a wide choice of Christmas gifts. No admission will be charged to the room where the bazaar is held.

The dancing will be from four to seven in the afternoon and from nine to midnight in the evening. Admission to the afternoon session of dancing will be one dollar, with five dollars extra for the reservation of tables. Admission to the evening dancing will be one dollar, with no charge for the reservation of tables.

The dancing pupils of Miss Doris De Fiddes will give exhibition dancing in the afternoon. Notably among them will be Baby June Martin, who will give "Cottella," a solo dance, and Baby Sylvia Yasse, who will do an Irish dance.

In the evening there will be exhibition dances by Miss Madeleine Frank and Douglas Crane, and an Egyptian ballet by Misses Norma Gaetgen, Grace Boyd, Rose Shaumer, Lucille Hildebrandt, Juanita Lashley, Lillian Dalton, Marjorie Tobias and Marie Dalton. Miss Carrie Ellsworth will give a fancy dance.

A Chinese bedspread and "shams," elaborately embroidered in gold, donated by Mrs. Frederick Kohl, will be auctioned by H. Taylor Curtis.

Hurt on Ice

MRS. WILLIAM H. TAYLOR JR. had the misfortune to break her ankle while skating at the Ice Palace on Monday afternoon. She was taken to the Hotel St. Francis, where the injured foot is to be set to-day. Her friends have literally filled her room with flowers. The injury will keep her in for several weeks.

Notables at the Hotels

D. R. E. S. BOBERT, U. S. N., fleet surgeon and medical inspector of the Pacific fleet, and Mrs. Bobert arrived at the St. Francis yesterday. They are celebrating the twenty-first anniversary of their wedding day. Dr. W. L. Bell, U. S. N., was at the hotel to meet them. Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Yates from Detroit and Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Hoyt from Seattle were other members of the medical profession who registered yesterday at the St. Francis.

M. J. DORR of Los Angeles, one of the assistants to the Secretary of the Interior, is at the Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. F. Walker, from Great Falls, Mont., on route for Australia to look into zinc properties for the Guggenheims; F. E. Dunne, Stockton shoe merchant, and Mrs. Dunne, returning from their honeymoon; A. J. Christopher, Fish Commissioner from Washington, D. C., and J. C. Daly, former Judge at Ventura, are at the Stewart.

MISS REBECCA AIBONA, a nurse, who graduated from the Children's Hospital and Training School for Nurses, arrived at the Stewart yesterday from Honolulu, where she has been in charge of a hospital for some time. Mrs. J. L. Cooper, whose husband is manager of the Clarion in Honolulu, also arrived on the Matson liner Manoa yesterday and is at the Stewart.

DR. AND MRS. J. IRA MORRIS are at the Plaza. They are San Franciscans, but have been making a lengthy visit to Australia, whence Mrs. Morris also arrived at the Plaza. A. L. Silva, land owner of Spanish descent from San Gregorio, is another arrival at the Plaza.

FRED SWANTON, Santa Cruz real estate operator, is at the St. Francis negotiating with W. L. Robards of Santa Paula for the location of a moving picture plant.

Other guests were Mrs. Lester Loupe, Mrs. Jack Mitchell, Mrs. Harold Mann, Mrs. Leonard Wood and the Messrs. Dorothy Cooper, Mrs. Bates, Elizabeth Deane, Linda Bryan and Edith Cummings.

Yesterday Miss Elizabeth Bates entertained many of the same coterie at a tea at her home in compliment to Miss Danforth and to-day Miss Cooper gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Danforth.

Boxes for Ball

PLANS for the Charity Ball are progressing most encouragingly. The boxes that have not been any left by the end of the week, Mrs. William Delaware Nielson took one yesterday. Mr. A. Moran also subscribed for a box.

Miss Katherine Donohoe is in charge of the decorations. The flowers will all be donated and Miss Donohoe and a staff of young women will decorate the supper tables. There will be several dinner parties at the Mt. Diablo Hotel preceding this dance. Those desiring to reserve supper tables, for which there will be no extra charge, may do so by communicating with W. P. Taylor, assistant manager at the Palace Hotel.

Mt. Diablo Club

THE Mt. Diablo Park Club continues to be a popular week-end mecca for the smart set of the bay cities. Outdoor diversions of golf, tennis, boating, horseback riding, motorizing continue to appeal to the lovers of the country life. The informal Saturday evening dances in the clubhouse are another diversion that appeals to young and old alike.

PROBLEMS OF THE HOME DISCUSSED

California Club Members Hear Excellent Address by Miss Charlotte Ebbets.

PROBLEMS of the home were discussed yesterday at the California Club, 1750 Clay street, under the direction of Miss Charlotte P. Ebbets.

Basing her dissertation on the topic, "What the Home Economics Movement is Doing for Home, Society and Citizenship," Miss Ebbets drew the attention of the club women to their duty in preserving many of the so-called "old-fashioned" principles.

The science has simplified and idealized home duties was pointed out effectively by Miss Ebbets. She drew her deductions from comparative household labors. The speaker desired that through effective home-making could civilization advance. The message brought by Miss Ebbets was received with enthusiasm by the California Club members and their guests.

Arthur L. Street, director of the American Institute of Current History, spoke before the club women on current events. His discourse included many of the local problems in addition to topics of universal interest. Miss Margaret Curry presided at the meeting.

Timothy Healy addressed the New Era League members yesterday on the subject of "Immigration and the Chinese Question." Mr. Healy, attorney at law, pointed out new angles of the Oriental problem, basing his discourse upon immigration from a legal point of view. The lecture by Healy was generally conceded to be one of the most profitable events scheduled by the New Era League women.

Mrs. George Sperry, chairman of the day, and Mrs. Lillian Harris Coffin, president of the New Era League, welcomed the guests at the morning meeting, including many prominent women of the bay cities.

FOUNDERS' Day with an elaborate breakfast yesterday at the Sequoia Club rooms, Mrs. H. C. Jensen in charge of the event.

A series of interesting song numbers, recitations, dramatic readings and quotations were part of the programme plan.

The Association of Pioneer Women will hold their monthly meeting today at the Log Cabin in Golden Gate Park. Mrs. Laura H. Phelps, chairman of the day, has outlined an interesting plan of entertainment for this November event. A luncheon will precede the programme.

FROM San Francisco came Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Fitzpatrick, who entertained as their guest Mrs. Ursula Stone Shean, while Mr. and Mrs. J. Seuberg and Mr. and Mrs. J. Carl Seuberg made up another jolly Oakland motor party.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Morey and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Holmes motored over from Alameda.

In one of the largest San Francisco parties motoring over to the club for the week-end were:

Judge and Mrs. Thomas F. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lerman, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Roncovieri, Colonel and Mrs. Frank W. Marston, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Healey, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seeley, Miss Ruth Seeley and Harold Snodgrass.

In another San Francisco party were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hanlon, Mrs. E. Playfair and Miss Phyllis Winger. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Magill Jr. were the week-end guests of John N. Curtis and his daughter, Mrs. Trudy Curtis Donau, who occupy a bungalow at the Park.

Mrs. Russell Wilson will give a luncheon on Friday at her home in town.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Walter Bliss will be hostess to-day at a luncheon at her home in Vallejo street.

Mrs. Norval Lane Nokes was hostess Monday at a luncheon at the Town and Country Club.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A Few Applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur Bring Back Vigor, Gloss and Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.
