Greenback To-Day, No. 111, No. 111, No. 111

Local and Hog Ranches, Patrons—A San Francisco "local" is a name for a hog ranch.

What is it? This is the first time that any of the San Francisco "local" has been mentioned in a public newspaper.

High does our provincial neighbor imagine that a great "metropolitan" is not in the same scale as a country paper?

The three H's—Hill, Hill, Hill, the "Historical Register," philosopher and theologian.

His laudable intention, from times beyond to come, for the benefit of his fellow citizens.

It is a waste of time to reply with a counter-charge to each individual author.

"The College Echo," in the name of a good little paper of four pages published at Oakland.

A Splendid Chance for obtaining articles of jewelry and silverware for holiday presents.

New Paper, We have received the first number of the Chronicle (W. T.) Chronicle.

DEMAGOGICAL CLAPNET.

The Stockton Gazette commences an article entitled "Taxation and Revenue" in the following significant terms: "It has come at last. A so-called Republican Government calls upon the military to assist the tax collector in his work."

"Happy, free America! So once said from year to year by our Fourth of July orators. We were the refuge for the enslaved and oppressed of Old World tyrannies."
