—The Palm Theatre was closed Tuesday night by the management and no performance given by the Merron Plum Makers. The reason given was that the show was no good and the management didn't desire to see the people lipped. When the management engaged the company it was expected a performance would be given as advertised, but instead an entertainment that hardly had a redeeming feature in it was substituted. The management adopted the right course in refusing to let the company use the theatre. The taste of Santa Cruz theatre-goers has become too cultivated for them to be imposed upon. In a word, Santa Cruz is not a joy town.

BLACK—STUEDEMAN.

A Quiet, Impressive Marriage Ceremony at the Episcopal Church.

At exactly 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Episcopal church of this city two young hearts were united in the bonds of matrimony, Miss Clara M. Stuedeman and William M. Black being the contracting parties. The choir sang softly as the bridal procession marched down the center aisle, Miss Emma Stuedeman acting as the bridesmaid and Thomas Marnell as the groomsmen. Rev. C. O. Tilton officiated.

The bride was attired in a white satin brocaded gown and wore a veil of tulle fastened with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was attired in white silk.

J. Stuedeman, the bride's father, gave away his daughter. Not a tremor in the voices were audible as the young couple responded to the words which made them husband and wife. The Episcopal ceremony was simple and impressive. The altar was tastefully decorated with ferns. The choir consisted of Mrs. C. O. Tilton, Mrs. Taylor and the Misses Gardner, Mrs. Rose Ort acting as organist. A great many of the young couple's relatives and acquaintances were present.

After the marriage ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Black were conveyed in a hack to the photograph gallery, after which they in company with about forty invited guests partook of a delicious wedding breakfast in the parlors of the California Restaurant. It was a merry, happy crowd which sat down at the well filled tables. Toasts were in order, and it was well along in the afternoon before the guests arose. Mr. and Mrs. Black left on the afternoon train for Monterey. They will also visit Mr. Black's relatives and friends in Salinas, after which they will go to Los Angeles, where they will make their future home.

An enthusiastic audience greeted Evangelists Putman and Kirk Tuesday evening. Mr. Putman spoke on "The True Characteristics of the Christian Servant." He said the servant of Christ must be enthusiastic. He must have convictions concerning what Christ is and what He does for men. The true servant must take the place no one else will have. Mr. Putman reverses the favorite maxim, "There is always room at the top" by saying "There is always room at the bottom." Mr. Kirk sang in his best voice the solo entitled "Babylon" the speaker announced he would speak this evening on the theme "What is the Pearl of Great Price?" The solo "Callst Thou Thine O Master," will be rendered by Mr. Kirk. This afternoon Mr. Evans of Missouri will preach.

The Mount Lebanon Shakers have recently perfected an ingenious cure for dyspepsia. Their Digestive Cordial consists of a food already digested and a digester of foods happily combined. The importance of this invention will be appreciated when we realize what a proportion of the community are victims of some form of stomach trouble. Thousands of pale, thin people have little inclination to eat, and what they do eat causes them pain and distress.

This Digestive Cordial of the Shakers corrects any stomach derangement at once. It makes thin people plump. Every one will be greatly interested to read the little book which has been placed in the hands of druggists for free distribution.
