

Thomas A. Hender Appointed Chief Wharfinger

THOMAS A. HENDER OF TULUMNE COUNTY, WHO HAS BEEN APPOINTED CHIEF WHARFINGER OF THIS CITY.

At a meeting of the state board of harbor commissioners yesterday Thomas A. Hender was appointed chief wharfinger to succeed Richard R. Welch...

Hender comes from Sonoma in Tuolumne county, where for 15 years he served as supervisor. He is a hotelman by profession and was engaged in the real estate and insurance business...

Speaking of the new chief wharfinger's knowledge of shipping affairs, President Stafford said yesterday: "Mr. Hender was done an injustice by one of the morning newspapers, which stated that he hailed from Calaveras county..."

As chief wharfinger, Hender will be plunged into the middle of things marine from the time he begins his new work. His first duty will be to reconstruct his vocabulary, and in doing that he will add to his knowledge of physical facts...

Judge Wood and the lawyers for both sides were disappointed at not being able to complete the jury today. Court adjourned until 11 o'clock on Monday morning in order to enable the judge to adjourn the term of court which is due to meet at Idaho City at 10 o'clock that morning...

Commissioner Henry J. Crocker was not present at the meeting, not having yet recovered from his encounter with the brakeman with whom he engaged in a fight while on his way to Hopland a few days ago.

The commissioners ordered the secretary to advertise in The Call for bids for supplying electric light along the wharf front for three years. The commissioners also are figuring on the cost of a lighting plant to be operated by the state, and if the bids appear to be unreasonable the board will build a plant.

The request of P. Berovich to retain the cigar stand he occupies on Meigs wharf was denied. Berovich's petition was signed by all the pilots and by every member of the Meigs wharf colony. The order for Berovich's removal was part of the plan for restoring the bulkheads to the public service, and the refusal was in line with the board's policy to make no exceptions.

A report made to the board by Captain Putzinger, superintendent of state tugs and dredgers, showed that the boilers of state dredger 1 were ruined through the carelessness of Watchman F. Allen, who on May 29 lighted the furnace fire and did not discover that there was no water in the boilers until the boilers were red hot. The boilers were provided with water gauges, but Allen ignored them until melting metal fuming down the sides of the cylinders told him that something was wrong. His excuse was that the captain had neglected to tell him that the boilers were empty.

Goodall, $5,000; James H. Bennett, $5,000; Harry R. Young, $5,000; John Rothschild, $2,500; S. W. E. Stringer, $100, and Robert J. McGahle, $100.

LEARNS THAT HER FIRST HUSBAND IS STILL ALIVE

Mrs. Margaret Ferris Asks Superior Court to Declare Void Her Second Marriage

Margaret E. Ferris being suit yesterday to annul her marriage to C. B. Ferris, a brakeman. Seven years ago she married an army teamster who went to the Philippines and forgot his bride. Four years ago she heard that the teamster was dead and, believing this, she was married to Ferris on October 18, 1904. Recently she heard that her husband, the teamster, was still alive.

Arturo Micheletti filed suit for divorce from Viola Micheletti, whom he accuses of infidelity. The couple were married in Italy 10 years ago and have two children.

HAYWOOD IS TAKEN ILL AND TRIAL GOES OVER

Seized With Toxic Poisoning in His Cell in Boise Jail

RECOVERING RAPIDLY

Court to Resume Tomorrow and Jury Will Be Completed During Day

BOISE, Idaho, June 1.—An attack of acute indigestion which rendered Haywood unable to be in court prevented any session today. When court opened at 9:30 o'clock this morning Judge Wood announced that he had been informed that the defendant was unable to appear and asked the lawyers if they had any statement to make. Richardson said that the court's information was correct, that Haywood was suffering from "toxic poisoning," but that the attack was not serious and that he would be able to come into court in the afternoon, possibly.

Richardson added that Haywood had been taken ill about 5 o'clock this morning and that he had suffered such pain that the physician had given him morphine to relieve him. The illness had been brief and he was already recovered from it, but he still suffered the effects of the morphine. Court adjourned until 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, at which time Richardson announced that Haywood was still under the influence of the drug. But the defendant would surely be in court Monday morning or tomorrow, said the attorney, if the judge decided to hold session. He explained that Haywood had tried to dress, but had felt so much nausea and dizziness that he had gone back to bed.

Of course, all sorts of talk was afloat in Boise about the case after this, and there will be no surprise at any sort of wild report that is sent out about Haywood's illness and its cause. The facts are as above stated.

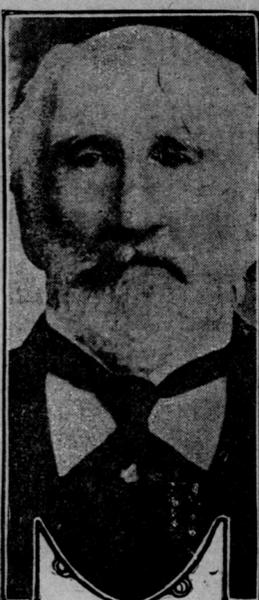

Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone are boarded by Sheriff Hodgins. They have exactly the same food as that served to the sheriff and his family. They also have liberty to send out and buy what they want if they are not satisfied with the table that the sheriff sets. As a matter of fact, they have never made any complaint about the food and have only occasionally bought some fruit, principally grapes.

Haywood is a strapping big man with a proportionate appetite. Until the trial began he took a good deal of exercise, walking in the jail yard, pitching quoits and practicing callisthenics in his cell, but since the trial opened he has not had time for that and has let it go. His appetite has remained as good as ever, with this unfortunate result. Neither Moyer nor Pettibone, who had the same food yesterday as Haywood, suffered any ill effects in consequence.

Judge Wood and the lawyers for both sides were disappointed at not being able to complete the jury today. Court adjourned until 11 o'clock on Monday morning in order to enable the judge to adjourn the term of court which is due to meet at Idaho City at 10 o'clock that morning.

After adjournment today the judge told the lawyers that he expected them to fill the jury box on Monday "if it takes till 10 o'clock that night."

ROBERT E. LEE JR. SAYS SOUTH FEARED SLAVERY

In Speech at Richmond He Defends "Dixie" From Critics of North

ADDRESSES VETERANS

Declares Secession Was Not Preached for First by Confederates

RICHMOND, Va., June 1.—In a speech at last night's session of the Confederate reunion, which aroused the contention and which has been the most important feature of the reunion thus far, Colonel Robert E. Lee Jr. said:

"For the purpose of this occasion we care not how the African slave first placed his unshallowed feet on southern soil. Although the south had at one time no inconsiderable career of maritime adventures 'no ship or ship master of hers has ever in a single case been implicated in the illicit African slave trade. Her greatest men always maintained slavery to be the most dangerous element in the country."

"Virginia, in October, 1778, and Georgia, in 1793, passed acts prohibiting the importation of slaves. Thus to the everlasting credit of the south she leads the world in an earnest attempt to prevent the very thing of which her favorites were represented as the dissatisfaction occasioned by the war with Great Britain, and fourth, by the legislature of Massachusetts because it was proposed to annex Texas to the federal union."

"When the red curtain of war rolled up on the American stage it revealed the country in arms ready and willing to defend all that makes life worth living, the future of the country, the honor of the people, the sanctity of the people."

TOO MANY OFFICERS IN THE SPANISH NAVY

Proposed Reduction Leads to an Altercation and the Arrest of Inspector General

MADRID, June 1.—A sensation has been caused among naval and military officers here by the arrest of General Diaz del Rio, Inspector General of marine infantry, following an altercation with Captain Fernando Nino, minister of marine, respecting the latter's decision to reduce the personnel of the navy. The minister holds that the service is oversupplied with staff officers, and he proposes to retire 245 of them of various grades, and also 439 noncommissioned officers, devoting the money thus saved to the improvement of the naval equipment.

LEADING LUMBERMAN DEAD

EUREKA, June 1.—John M. Vance, Humboldt's earliest railroad builder, died last night at the age of 65 years after a lingering illness. Twenty years ago he established the Eel River and Eureka railroad, which was the first road to tap the prolific timber belts in the southern end of this county. He also built the lumbering plants operated by the Dolbeer & Carson lumber company. He leaves one son. He was one of the most prominent lumbermen on the Pacific coast.
