THE SAN FRANCISCO CALL, SUNDAY, JULY 26, 1896.

WHERE PLEASURE REIGNS SUPREME

How Society Amuses Itself at the Fashionable Resorts.

Picnics, Lawn Parties and Fishing Excursions to Pass the Time.

New Arrivals at the Seaside, the Mountains, and the Springs.

The heart of the resort manager is glad in proportion to the advance of the season...

AT THE VESPERE.

That the Vedettes have none of its popularity...

AT THE VESPERE.

That the Vedettes have none of its popularity...

RECEIVED.

His pal did not get the morning lines...

And I'm hearing here while the soap...

For he would be wined as to...

'Will be come,' I am saying 'this love...

And I'd rather wash and pray.
