

MONDAY

THE EXAMINER, SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 17, 1902.

MONDAY

KEEPERS OF DEN ALLOW BOYS TO GAMBLE

Place Has Been Licensed by the Police Commission on Its Claim That It Never Tolerates Any Violation of the Law.

Though Owners of Resort Declare in Affidavits Minors Do Not Patronize Them, Youth Buys Chips and Whisky.

San Francisco, March 17.—The police commission has today issued a license to the owners of the Casino Club, a resort on the coast, to allow minors to gamble on the premises.

The license was granted on the condition that the owners of the resort should declare in affidavits that minors do not patronize them, and that they do not sell whisky or chips to minors.

The police commission has also issued a license to the owners of the Casino Club to allow minors to gamble on the premises.

The license was granted on the condition that the owners of the resort should declare in affidavits that minors do not patronize them, and that they do not sell whisky or chips to minors.

The police commission has also issued a license to the owners of the Casino Club to allow minors to gamble on the premises.

The license was granted on the condition that the owners of the resort should declare in affidavits that minors do not patronize them, and that they do not sell whisky or chips to minors.

THOUSANDS OF PLEASURE SEEKERS THROUG PARK AND OCEAN BEACH

Multitude Enjoying the Sunshine.

TREATY WITH SPAIN IS PROGRESSING NICELY

Belknap Storer, United States Minister at Madrid, Says the Negotiations Will Be Entirely Successful.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Belknap Storer, United States minister to Spain, arrived here today from Madrid, where he has been negotiating for several days.

Storer said that the negotiations with Spain are progressing very nicely, and that he expects to return to Madrid in a few days.

Storer also said that the United States government is very anxious to reach an agreement with Spain on the subject of the Cuban question.

Storer said that the negotiations with Spain are progressing very nicely, and that he expects to return to Madrid in a few days.

Storer also said that the United States government is very anxious to reach an agreement with Spain on the subject of the Cuban question.

SIX BULLS PERISH BEFORE FAMOUS MATADORS

Fuertes and Mazzanti, Champions of the World, Give an Exhibition of Their Skill at Ciudad de Jerez.

Former Is Unlucky and Three Animals in Succession Refuse to Become Pugnacious for Him—Thrilling Escapes.

San Francisco, March 17.—The world's champion matadors, Fuertes and Mazzanti, gave an exhibition of their skill at the Ciudad de Jerez today.

Fuertes was unlucky and three animals in succession refused to become pugnacious for him.

Mazzanti was more successful and killed six bulls during the performance.

The performance was a thrilling one and attracted a large crowd of spectators.

The world's champion matadors, Fuertes and Mazzanti, gave an exhibition of their skill at the Ciudad de Jerez today.

Fuertes was unlucky and three animals in succession refused to become pugnacious for him.

Mazzanti was more successful and killed six bulls during the performance.

The performance was a thrilling one and attracted a large crowd of spectators.

The world's champion matadors, Fuertes and Mazzanti, gave an exhibition of their skill at the Ciudad de Jerez today.

Ideal California Summer Day Draws Largest Crowd Ever Seen at Local Seaside Resort.

San Francisco, March 17.—The ideal California summer day drew the largest crowd ever seen at the local seaside resort today.

The weather was perfect and the sun shined brightly, drawing thousands of people to the beach.

The crowd was estimated to be the largest ever seen at the resort, with people of all ages enjoying the day.

The ideal California summer day drew the largest crowd ever seen at the local seaside resort today.

The weather was perfect and the sun shined brightly, drawing thousands of people to the beach.

The crowd was estimated to be the largest ever seen at the resort, with people of all ages enjoying the day.

The ideal California summer day drew the largest crowd ever seen at the local seaside resort today.

The weather was perfect and the sun shined brightly, drawing thousands of people to the beach.

TRANSPORT SERVICE REPORTS MUST BE SHOWN

Secretary Root This Morning Will Officially Know of the Resolution Passed by the House on Saturday.

Washington, March 17.—Secretary Root this morning will officially know of the resolution passed by the House on Saturday.

The resolution relates to the transportation service and was passed by a large majority.

Secretary Root is expected to announce the results of the resolution to the public.

The resolution is expected to have a significant impact on the transportation industry.

Secretary Root is expected to announce the results of the resolution to the public.

The resolution is expected to have a significant impact on the transportation industry.

Secretary Root is expected to announce the results of the resolution to the public.

The resolution is expected to have a significant impact on the transportation industry.

Secretary Root is expected to announce the results of the resolution to the public.

The resolution is expected to have a significant impact on the transportation industry.

Secretary Root is expected to announce the results of the resolution to the public.

RAILWAY TRAVELERS STALLED BY A BLIZZARD

No Attempt Being Made to Run Trains on Northern Pacific and Passengers Aft Kept at the Stations.

San Francisco, March 17.—A blizzard has stalled railway travelers on the Northern Pacific and passengers are kept at the stations.

The blizzard has caused a major disruption of the railway service, with many trains canceled.

Passengers are being kept at the stations and are being provided with food and shelter.

The blizzard is expected to continue for several more days, causing further delays.

Passengers are being kept at the stations and are being provided with food and shelter.

The blizzard is expected to continue for several more days, causing further delays.

Passengers are being kept at the stations and are being provided with food and shelter.

The blizzard is expected to continue for several more days, causing further delays.

Passengers are being kept at the stations and are being provided with food and shelter.

NEW CURE FOR PENSION AGENTS

National Legislature Passed a Certain Bill.

Washington, March 17.—The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

STREET CAR RUNS INTO ROSE WAGON

Two Firemen Are Fatally Injured and Several Persons Hurt.

San Francisco, March 17.—A street car ran into a rose wagon today, causing two firemen to be fatally injured and several other people to be hurt.

The accident occurred in the city center and caused a major disruption of traffic.

The injured firemen are being treated in the hospital, but their condition is serious.

The accident occurred in the city center and caused a major disruption of traffic.

The injured firemen are being treated in the hospital, but their condition is serious.

The accident occurred in the city center and caused a major disruption of traffic.

The injured firemen are being treated in the hospital, but their condition is serious.

The accident occurred in the city center and caused a major disruption of traffic.

The injured firemen are being treated in the hospital, but their condition is serious.

NEW CURE FOR PENSION AGENTS

National Legislature Passed a Certain Bill.

Washington, March 17.—The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.

The bill is expected to have a significant impact on the pension industry.

The national legislature has passed a certain bill related to pension agents.