Roosevelt Visits Cliff House, Golden Gate Park and Presidio--Entertained by Native Sons--Breaks Ground For McKinley Monument

(By "Gazette's" Leased Wire.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—President Roosevelt arose early this morning and from his windows in the Palace Hotel saw the sun break from a threatening bank of fog before the hour marked for the first event on the program prepared for the day.

At 9 o'clock he was in his carriage accompanied by Mayor Schmitz and a few moments later, escorted by a squadron of cavalry and members of the executive committee, proceeded to Native Sons' Hall on Mission street. As on yesterday, the streets were thronged with people, and the President's approach was a signal for hearty cheers.

The soldiers were under command of Major General MacArthur and this appearance as well as the military evolutions skillfully performed for his inspection elicited high praise from the President.
