

The Call

VOLUME LXXXVI—NO. 85.

SAN FRANCISCO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 1899.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

CALIFORNIA HEROES HOME FROM THE PHILIPPINES

Gallant Colonel and Brave Men of the Fighting First Ride Safely at Anchor on the Ocean a Few Miles Outside the Golden Gate.

Aside From the Demise of Sergeant Korning and Private Bismore the Speedy Voyage Across the Pacific Was Utterly Devoid of Any Particular Incident.

The transport Sherman will pass through the heads at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Everybody must be on the tugs and yachts not later than 11:30 o'clock a. m. The naval parade will start promptly at noon. 8 p. m.—Grand bay illumination. FRIDAY. 7 a. m.—California Volunteers disembark. 8 a. m.—Volunteers breakfast with relatives in the grand nave of the ferry depot. 10:30 a. m.—March to Presidio, where they will be given furlough till Saturday morning. SATURDAY. 11 a. m. till 1 p. m.—Band concerts at Union Square and Columbia Park. 8 p. m.—Grand electrical display and parade. 10:30 p. m.—Grand banquet in the ferry depot.

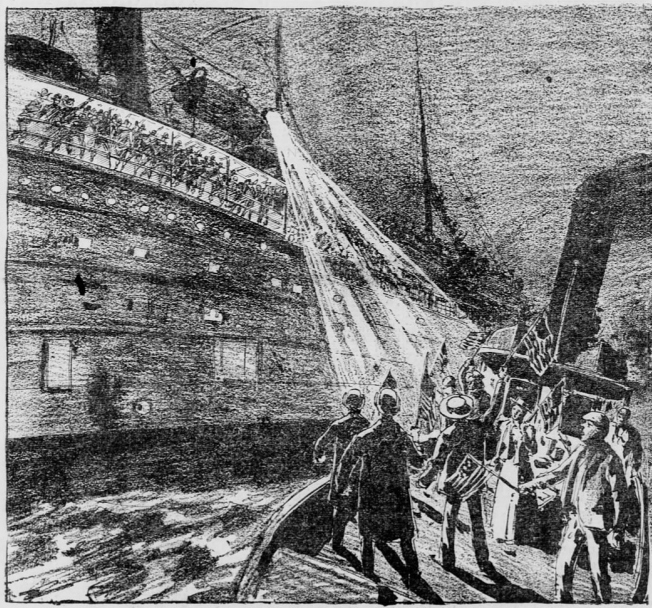

THE OFFICIAL PROGRAMME.

THE transport Sherman will pass through the heads at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Everybody must be on the tugs and yachts not later than 11:30 o'clock a. m. The naval parade will start promptly at noon. 8 p. m.—Grand bay illumination. FRIDAY. 7 a. m.—California Volunteers disembark. 8 a. m.—Volunteers breakfast with relatives in the grand nave of the ferry depot. 10:30 a. m.—March to Presidio, where they will be given furlough till Saturday morning. SATURDAY. 11 a. m. till 1 p. m.—Band concerts at Union Square and Columbia Park. 8 p. m.—Grand electrical display and parade. 10:30 p. m.—Grand banquet in the ferry depot.

Ahead of All Others The Call Heralds Their Approach to the City by the First Use on This Coast of Wireless Telegraphy.

Citizens of San Francisco Went Wild When They Heard the News, Horns Tooted, Bombs Exploded, Bonfires Lighted, Flags Hoisted and General Rejoicing Ensued.

When the news of the capture of the transport Sherman was received at the city, the excitement was such that the streets were filled with people. The news was first received by the wireless telegraph, and the citizens of San Francisco went wild when they heard the news. Horns tooted, bombs exploded, bonfires were lighted, and flags were hoisted. General rejoicing ensued.

THE TRANSPORT'S SIDE SWARMED WITH MEN.

When the Call's tug drew alongside the soldiers crowded to the rail and shouted questions across the water. They cheered and their arms and hands waved their hair, and when they reached the transport, awaiting them, their joyful greetings began. They are wild to be home, and the transport cannot come too soon for them.

From the deck of the alert came the great greeting from home. There was light enough to see the steam that curled from the other that arched over the water and came back from the ship's side. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song.

From the deck of the alert came the great greeting from home. There was light enough to see the steam that curled from the other that arched over the water and came back from the ship's side. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song.

From the deck of the alert came the great greeting from home. There was light enough to see the steam that curled from the other that arched over the water and came back from the ship's side. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song.

From the deck of the alert came the great greeting from home. There was light enough to see the steam that curled from the other that arched over the water and came back from the ship's side. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song.

From the deck of the alert came the great greeting from home. There was light enough to see the steam that curled from the other that arched over the water and came back from the ship's side. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song.

From the deck of the alert came the great greeting from home. There was light enough to see the steam that curled from the other that arched over the water and came back from the ship's side. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song. "Welcome home!" cried from the "Herald" "Herald" came back with a congratulatory burst of song.

LIKE BEDLAM LET LOOSE.

Streets Thronged With a Wildly Excited Multitude.

Sound of the Call's Signal Gun Marks the Beginning of a Reasonable Resurrection of Joy.

The streets were thronged with a wildly excited multitude. The sound of the Call's signal gun marks the beginning of a reasonable resurrection of joy.

The streets were thronged with a wildly excited multitude. The sound of the Call's signal gun marks the beginning of a reasonable resurrection of joy.

The streets were thronged with a wildly excited multitude. The sound of the Call's signal gun marks the beginning of a reasonable resurrection of joy.

The streets were thronged with a wildly excited multitude. The sound of the Call's signal gun marks the beginning of a reasonable resurrection of joy.

The streets were thronged with a wildly excited multitude. The sound of the Call's signal gun marks the beginning of a reasonable resurrection of joy.

The streets were thronged with a wildly excited multitude. The sound of the Call's signal gun marks the beginning of a reasonable resurrection of joy.

The streets were thronged with a wildly excited multitude. The sound of the Call's signal gun marks the beginning of a reasonable resurrection of joy.

The streets were thronged with a wildly excited multitude. The sound of the Call's signal gun marks the beginning of a reasonable resurrection of joy.

The streets were thronged with a wildly excited multitude. The sound of the Call's signal gun marks the beginning of a reasonable resurrection of joy.