Before Railroad Commissioners Edson, Blackstock and Laumeister the rehearing of the oil rate case was continued yesterday afternoon. W. G. Nevin, general manager of the Santa Fe lines west of Albuquerque, was the first witness to give testimony. C. N. Sterry, solicitor of the Santa Fe, with headquarters at Los Angeles, conducted the direct examina-tion. Frank N. Short represented the oil men.

Angeles, conducted the direct examination. Frank N. Short represented the oil transformer to the women's Etuby. Debates on the subject are being held throughout the control of the value road is short a source of much revenue to the same sais of computation of the value road couldn't pay its pay roll, to say nothing of maintenance as a local road.
 Argeles, conducted the direct examination of the value road saving the women's Cluby. Debates on the subject are being held throughout the country, and the result has in each case been sent to the mother organization. Next summer the annual segsion of the federation will be held in the city of Los Angeles. At that time the subject will be taken up, and it will then be decided whether colored women shall be permitted to be on an equality with the white women of the country. At the Philomath Club the debate was highly interesting. Mrs. Herman Heyneman and Miss Annie E. Pratt had the affirmative, and Mrs. Julius Kahn and Miss Mabel Cluire Craft the negative. The papers read were able and clearly defined the stand of both sides.

The Board of Election Commissioners yesterday announced the result of the canvass of the votes cast at the late municipal election. The changes in the fig-ures between the semi-official and official returns are so slight as to afford but little encouragement to defeated candidates who contemplate making contests. In many instances the vote is close and there is a possibility of technical errors making a change in a legal contest. The total vote cast was 33,746. The only boards. In other cases the changes ranged from 3 to 10 votes. In one case, that of George Alpers, Republican nomi-nee for Supervisor, there was no change between the official and semi-official returns. The official figures as returned by th Registrar are as follows:

MAYOR.

LADIES DEBATE

Defends the Negro

Women.

Join the Federation

of Clubs.

The rooms of the Philomath Club were crowded yesterday afternoon with mem-bers and friends of the organization. It was the occasion of the much talked of debate on the mooted question "Should

The affirmative contended that colored women should not be permitted to join the federation, upon the ground that they were not of sufficiently high standard to affiliate with the white sex. Among the interesting papers read at the meeting was that presented by Mrs. Julius Kahn, wife of the Congressmar from this city. In part it is as follows:

of the question, from the abstract point of view. The fact that the application was considered and the only objection raised was that of color is sufficient guarantee that in other re-spects the club filled the requirements of ad-mission. The members do not seek recogni-tion on the sympathetic plea, but on their own merit and desire to win recognition as women. They would not accept it as a grat-uity to an inferior race.
