

THE DAILY EXAMINER, SAN FRANCISCO, THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 24, 1888.

BRIDES AND WAGGERS.
A LITTLE MORE ABOUT THE MARRIAGE OF THE BRIDE AND GROOM.

The bride and groom were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. B. Moore, at 10 o'clock last evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. M. J. McLaughlin, assisted by Rev. Mr. J. H. Smith. The bride wore a white tulle gown and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom was in a dark suit. The reception was given by the bride's mother, Mrs. J. B. Moore, and the bride's sisters, Misses J. B. Moore and J. B. Moore. The bride and groom were the only guests at the wedding. The reception continued until midnight.

MENAGED BY FIRE.

What Chief Marshall Has to Say About the Dollar Limit. Chief Marshall, who has been in charge of the fire department since his appointment last year, has issued a statement regarding the dollar limit on fire insurance. He stated that the limit is not a restriction on the amount of insurance that can be taken, but a restriction on the amount of money that can be paid out by the city in case of a fire. He explained that the city has a limited amount of money to draw on for fire insurance, and the dollar limit is a way of controlling the amount of money that is paid out.

THE McDONALD DIVORCE.

Extraordinary Statements Made by the Women on the Stand. In the trial of the McDonald divorce case, the women on the stand made extraordinary statements regarding the marriage. One woman stated that she had been married to the man for several years, but that she had never seen him since the wedding. Another woman stated that she had seen the man several times since the wedding, but that she had never spoken to him. The statements were so contradictory that the judge had to adjourn the trial until next week.

WANDERING WIFE.

How She Came to be Divorced From Her First Wife. A woman who has been married to her first husband for several years, has been divorced from him. The divorce was granted because she had been wandering from her husband for a long period of time. She had been seen in several different cities, and her husband was unable to find her. The divorce was granted on the grounds of abandonment.
